SEVENTH WARD.

Ald. Bennett presented an ordinance concerning the deposit of city funds in National and State banks; and an ordinance requiring the City Treasurer to make daily deposits of city funds and authorizing the City Comptroller to select an "active depositary" each month, which were Referred to the Committee on Finance.

Ald. Bennett presented the following order and opinion from the Corporation Counsel:

OFFICE OF THE CORPORATION COUNSEL,
October 15, 1906.

Hon. Frank I. Bennett, Chairman Finance Committee:

DEAR SIR—On March 30, 1906, (see p. 3286) the City Council authorized and directed the City Electrician to enter into a contract with the Illinois Telegraph & Telephone Company without advertising, for the installation of certain cables. The contract was entered into presumably with this company, but upon the papers being presented for signature the name was changed by the contractor to Illinois Tunnel Company. It seems that the Illinois Telegraph & Telephone Company is no longer in existence and has been succeeded by the Illinois Tunnel Company. There is therefore, no actual change in parties, but inasmuch as the order as passed by the Council will not authorize the City Comptroller to make payments to the Illinois Tunnel Company, I have drawn an order for presentation to the Council to straighten this matter out.

Yours Respectfully,
LEON HORNSTEIN,
Assistant Corporation Counsel.

WHEREAS, On March 30, 1906, the City Council of the City of Chicago, authorized and directed the City Electrician to enter into a contract with the Illinois Telegraph & Telephone Company without advertising, for the installation of certain electric cables in the tunnels of said company; and

WHEREAS, At the time of the passage of the aforesaid order the said Illinois Telegraph & Telephone Company was no longer in existence and had been succeeded by the Illinois Tunnel Company; and,

WHEREAS, The said City Electrician has proceeded under the authority given him as aforesaid; therefore, be it

Ordered, That the said order passed on March 30, 1906, and appearing on page 3286 of the Council Proceedings of that date, be and the same is hereby amended by striking out the words "Illinois Telegraph & Telephone Company" and substituting therefor the words, "Illinois Tunnel Company."

Ald. Bennett moved to pass the order.

AN ORDINANCE

Requiring the Belt Railway Company of Chicago and the Chicago Terminal Transfer Railroad Company, respectively, to elevate the plane of certain of their roadbeds and tracks within the City of Chicago.

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Chicago:

SECTION 1. That the Belt Railway Company of Chicago and the Chicago Terminal Transfer Railroad Company are each, respectively, hereby ordered and required to elevate the plane of their roadbeds and tracks within the limits of the City of Chicago in manner and upon the conditions hereinafter specified, that is to say:

Paragraph 1. Beginning at a point about twenty-five (25) feet south of the south line of West Madison street on the existing elevated roadbed and tracks of the Belt Railway Company of Chicago where an elevation of 46.0 feet above city datum has been established, as provided in the ordinance passed April 6th, 1898, and published on pages 2109 to 2112 inclusive, of the official records of the Council Proceedings of the City of Chicago, from said initial point the roadbed and tracks of said company shall be elevated and shall continue in a southerly direction on a descending gradient of about 0.70 per centum for a distance of about one thousand (1,000) feet to a point between Adams and Jackson street where an elevation of not less than 39.0 feet above city datum shall be attained; thence said elevated roadbed and tracks shall continue in a southerly direction on a level for a distance of about two thousand one hundred (2,100) feet to a point near Lexington avenue where the same elevation of 39.0 feet above city datum shall be maintained; and crossing in said last mentioned course underneath the elevated tracks of the Metropolitan West Side Elevated Railway Company; thence said elevated roadbed and tracks shall continue in a southerly direction on a descending gradient of about 0.275 per centum for a distance of about one thousand feet to a point near Colorado avenue where an elevation of not less than 36.25 feet above city datum shall be attained; thence said elevated roadbed and tracks shall continue in a southerly direction on a level for a distance of about one thousand one hundred (1,100) feet to a point on the center line of Twelfth street where the same elevation of 36.25 feet above city datum shall be maintained, and crossing at grade in said last mentioned course the main tracks and the "Y" connecting tracks of the Chicago Terminal Transfer Railroad Company; thence said elevated roadbed and tracks shall continue in a southerly direction on a descending gradient of about 0.019 per centum for a distance of about one thousand three hundred and twenty (1,320) feet to a point near West Thirteenth street where an elevation of not less than 36.0 feet above city datum shall be attained; thence said elevated roadbed and tracks shall continue in a southerly direction on a level for a distance of about four thousand two hundred (4,200) feet to a point near Hinman street where the same elevation of 36.0 feet above city datum shall be maintained; thence said elevated roadbed and tracks shall continue in a southerly direction on an ascending gradient of about 0.274 per centum for a distance of about two thousand three hundred (2,300) feet to a point near Ogden avenue where an elevation of about 42.3 feet above city datum shall be attained.

Paragraph 2. Beginning at a point on the west line of South Forty-second avenue on the proposed elevated roadbed and tracks of the Chicago Terminal Transfer Railroad Company at an elevation of about 33.5 feet above city datum, as established by ordinance passed January 18, 1897, and published on pages 1440 to 1457 inclusive, of the official records of the Council Proceedings of the City of Chicago; from said initial point the elevated roadbed and tracks of said company shall continue in a westerly direction on an ascending gradient of about 0.208 per centum for a distance of about one thousand three hundred and twenty (1,320) feet to a point about on the west line of South Forty-fourth avenue where an elevation of not less than 36.25 feet above city datum shall be attained; thence said elevated roadbed and tracks shall continue on a westerly direction on a level for a distance of about two thousand six hundred and forty (2640) feet to a point about on the west line of South Forty-eighth avenue where the same elevation of about 36.25 feet above city datum shall be maintained, and crossing at grade in said last mentioned course the proposed elevated roadbed and tracks of the Belt Railway Company of Chicago.

Paragraph 3. Permission and authority are hereby granted to the Belt Railway Company of Chicago and the Chicago Terminal Transfer Railroad Company mentioned in this ordinance, which are hereby required to elevate their roadbeds and tracks, to elevate their "Y" connecting tracks and to make such changes in the number, location and alignment of their respective main and side tracks and switch connections as may be desirable in order to carry out the provisions of this ordinance. But it is to be distinctly understood that where the east "Y" track crosses West Twelfth street it shall be at an elevation of not less than 36.25 feet above city datum at the top of the rail.

Paragraph 4. Should the Belt Railway Company of Chicago and the Chicago Terminal Transfer Railroad Company mentioned in Paragraphs 1, 2 and 3 of Section 1 of this ordinance, which are required to elevate the plane of their roadbeds and tracks agree and decide among themselves to eliminate the grade crossing at South Forty-sixth avenue south of Colorado avenue, between their roadbeds and tracks, by going over and underneath each other, then in and that event they are hereby authorized and empowered to do so in such manner and upon such terms and conditions as they may now or at any time hereafter agree upon, provided such agreement shall in no wise change the grade or gradients now established in Paragraphs 1, 2 and 3 of Section 1 of this ordinance, at Colorado avenue, West Twelfth street, South Forty-fourth avenue and South Forty-eighth avenue.

Paragraph 5. Nothing in this ordinance contained shall prevent the companies owning their tracks mentioned herein from changing the location of their said tracks by mutual agreement, as they may deem necessary, provided that no change of location shall be made that will prevent the separation of the grades of said tracks as contemplated in this ordinance.

Paragraph 6. Permission and authority are hereby granted to the Belt

Railway Company of Chicago and the Chicago Terminal Transfer Railroad Company to elevate their tracks leading to their yards lying north and south of West Twelfth street and adjoining the right of way of the Belt Railway Company of Chicago where it is necessary to make connection with the elevated roadbed and tracks of the Belt Railway Company of Chicago, as hereinbefore provided, and extending over and across West Twelfth street, and to make such changes in the number, location and alignment of their tracks as said companies may deem necessary to carry out the provisions of this ordinance.

Paragraph 7. All elevations of railroad tracks mentioned in this ordinance shall refer to the top of the rail.

SECTION 2. The embankment or embankments on which said elevated roadbed shall be constructed within the aforesaid limits, shall be composed of sand, cinders, slag, clay, gravel, loam, broken stone, or whatever else may compose the surplus material excavated from the subways and from the foundation pits and trenches along the line of said work. The side slopes and lateral dimensions of said embankments will be fixed and determined by the natural angle of repose of the materials of which said embankments may be constructed, but whenever it may become necessary for the purpose of keeping said embankments entirely within the lines of the right of way of said companies, such portions of said embankments at all such points shall be kept within the right of way lines by, or they shall be confined between retaining walls of concrete, stone or brick masonry; Provided, however, that whenever said retaining walls are of insufficient height to properly protect said right of way and to prevent trespassing thereon, then said retaining walls as aforesaid, shall be surmounted with a suitable fence or railing, but whenever said retaining walls are not used at all, the right of way of said companies shall be fenced in or otherwise properly enclosed in compliance with the present ordinances of the City of Chicago relating to the fencing of railroad tracks.

SECTION 3. The said elevated tracks shall be carried across all intersecting streets, avenues and alleys which by the terms of this ordinance are to be provided with subways, on suitable bridges of one, two, three or four spans, whose superstructure shall consist of iron or steel girders, with iron or steel main floor or ordinary track stringers, but should the latter method be adopted some suitable device shall be provided to prevent storm water, dirt, oil and other substances from dropping from such elevated structure upon the subways beneath. The said bridges shall be supported on abutments of concrete, stone or brick masonry as indicated in the schedule of subways, or on rows of iron or steel columns braced together laterally and erected on and anchored to masonry foundations constructed within the lines of the railroad right of way and in the center and curb lines of the intersecting streets and avenues, as provided in the schedule of subways herein contained. Provided if it shall be found necessary to construct any retaining or side walls in connection with any approaches to subways to support the adjoining property line along the depression to subways, then such walls may be constructed within the limits of the street, alley or public way upon which such approach is situated, and the abutments or side walls of the subway itself reached by such approach may be correspondingly advanced into the street so as to be in a continuous straight line with the approach wall; and in any such case the other details and dimensions of the subway given in the attached schedule of the subways may be changed as far as necessary to accord with the location of retaining or side walls or abutments aforesaid.

SECTION 4. Paragraph 1. Subways shall be constructed beneath the tracks of the Belt Railway Company of Chicago where said tracks are intersected and crossed by West Jackson street, West Van Buren street, West Congress street, West Harrison street, Lexington avenue, West Polk street, Colorado avenue, West Twelfth street, West Fourteenth street, West Sixteenth street, and West Twenty-second street.

Paragraph 2. Subways shall be constructed beneath the tracks of the Chicago Terminal Transfer Railroad Company where said tracks are intersected and crossed by West Twelfth street, South Forty-fourth avenue, and South Forty-eighth avenue.

Paragraph 3. As to the subways mentioned in Section 4, Paragraph 1 of this ordinance, the subways in West Jackson street, West Van Buren street, West Congress street, West Harrison street, Lexington avenue, West Polk street, Colorado avenue, West Fourteenth street, West Sixteenth street, and West Twenty-second street, said subways shall be constructed by the Belt Railway Company of Chicago.

Paragraph 4. As to the subways mentioned in Section 4, Paragraph 2 of this ordinance, the subways in South Forty-fourth avenue, and South Forty-eighth avenue, said subways shall be constructed by the Chicago Terminal Transfer Railroad Company.

Paragraph 5. As to the subway mentioned in Section 4, Paragraphs 1 and 2 of this ordinance, the subway in West Twelfth street shall be constructed jointly by the Belt Railway Company of Chicago and the Chicago Terminal Transfer Railroad Company in conjunction with each other as follows, to-wit: The Belt Railway Company of Chicago shall construct all that portion of said subway lying east of its west right of way line and also the east approach thereof; and the Chicago Terminal Transfer Railroad Company shall construct the remaining portion of said subway and the west approach thereof.

Paragraph 6. As to the subways mentioned in Section 4, Paragraph 1 of this ordinance, the subways in West Twelfth street, West Fourteenth street, West Sixteenth street, and West Twenty-second street, the east approach to said subways and that portion of said subways located upon its right of way within the corporate limits of the City of Chicago shall be constructed by the Belt Railway Company of Chicago.

Paragraph 7. As to the subway mentioned in Section 4, Paragraphs 1 and 2 of this ordinance, that portion of the subway in West Twelfth street within the limits of its right of way and located within the corporate limits of the City of Chicago shall be constructed by the Chicago Terminal Transfer Railroad Company.

shall be and the same are hereby changed so as to conform to the grades of such subways as they shall be depressed pursuant to the provisions of this ordinance.

SECTION 7. Provision shall be made for the drainage of the several subways wherever the streets are depressed, as provided for in this ordinance, by the construction of receiving basins properly located in or immediately adjacent to said subways, which said receiving basins shall be connected with and discharge their contents into the adjacent city sewers; provided, further, that if no adjacent city sewer exists at the time when the said tracks shall be elevated and the said several sewers constructed, such sewers as may be necessary to properly drain said subways shall be constructed at the expense of the railway or railroad company mentioned in this ordinance which owns or own the tracks crossing the several subways drained and in proportion to the number of tracks crossing such subways; and further, provided, that when any street in which a sewer is constructed by a railway or railroad company, is improved with a pavement, the total expense of constructing the sewer as above provided, shall be assessed against the property benefited and the amount paid by the railway or railroad company over and above its or their fair assessed proportion of the same be repaid to said railway or railroad company and within the same time limit as shall be provided in the contract for making such improvements. In case the lowest point of the surface of said subways should be below the grade of the adjacent sewer, some other adequate means of drainage satisfactory to the Commissioner of Public Works must be devised and provided by said railway and railroad companies at their expense.

SECTION 8. Paragraph 1. The subways and the approaches thereto so to be constructed by said companies, in said streets and avenues aforesaid, shall all conform to the following structural requirements in this section mentioned, namely: The roadways shall be paved with a single course of vitrified brick of standard quality, laid at right angles with the curb lines and set upon a solid foundation of hydraulic cement concrete of not less than six (6) inches thick or deep when solidly tamped in place and otherwise finished and properly crowned ready for the brick wearing surface, between which and the concrete there shall be interposed a layer of screened sand not less than one-half inch thick. The curb shall be of sound hard limestone or concrete masonry of standard dimensions and finish, and the sidewalks shall be finished and paved with Portland cement concrete of standard quality and workmanship and with the curbing and roadway paving shall be made, finished and put in permanent place in accordance with the requirements of the Department of Public Works of the City of Chicago.

The approaches to subways shall be excavated to the grades established by this ordinance and shall be in all other respects restored as near as may be to their condition before being so excavated. The paving and sidewalks in subways where streets or avenues are not depressed shall be the same as in the adjoining parts of such streets or avenues, if such paving and sidewalks exist at the time of construction of said subways, if not, whenever such paving and sidewalks shall be provided.

Each of said railway and railroad companies shall execute a good and sufficient bond in the amount of twenty-five thousand ($25,000) dollars, conditioned that said railway and railroad companies shall furnish and use such material and workmanship in the construction of the improvements heretofore specified as to insure the same to be free from all defects and to remain in continuous good order and condition, ordinary wear excepted, for a period of ten (10) years from and after the completion and acceptance of the same; and as a guarantee of the faithful performance of the work, the quality of the material furnished and the proper construction of said improvement, the railway and railroad companies hereby agree to keep and maintain said improvement without additional charge or cost to the City of Chicago, in such order and condition as will be satisfactory to the Commissioner of Public Works, ordinary wear excepted, for a period of ten (10) years from and after the completion and acceptance of the same, which keeping and maintaining shall include repairs or the entire reconstruction of the same, the necessity for which may be occasioned by or through the use of faulty or inferior material or workmanship; provided, however, the railway and railroad companies herein specified shall not be required to keep or maintain any part of said improvement under this guarantee which after its completion and acceptance shall have been removed for the purpose of laying or repairing any gas, sewer, water or other pipe or conduit in accordance with a permit granted by the City of Chicago, or to maintain or to renew any part of said improvement that may have been damaged in any manner by any work which shall have been done in accordance with or under the authority of a permit granted by the City of Chicago.

If either of said companies shall fail, neglect or refuse to repair, keep and maintain the said work in accordance with this paragraph within thirty (30) days after notice so to do from the Commissioner of Public Works, the Commissioner of Public Works may proceed to do or cause to have done the work necessary to comply with the same and collect the cost and expense thereof from said railway or railroad company, or companies mentioned in this ordinance, Paragraph 2. As to the streets in this section mentioned which are already paved or provided with sidewalks, such paving and sidewalks shall be restored with the present material when the same is in good condition by said railway or railroad company, or companies, at their expense, in such portions of said streets as are required to be constructed by said company, or companies, except that said railway or railroad company, or companies, shall not be required to restore any part of the paving of approaches or subways which it is the duty of any street railway company or other corporation itself to resore under existing laws or ordinances.

Paragraph 3. Said company, or companies, shall pave the entire length and width of the roadway in such portions of the subways as are required to be constructed by said railway or railroad company, or companies, as is mentioned in this ordinance, except that such company or companies, shall not be required to pave or depress any part of the subways to be occupied by or adjacent to street railway tracks which by reason of existing laws or ordinances it will be the duty of any street railway company or other corporation itself to pave.

Paragraph 4. Any street railway company occupying any of the streets in the City of Chicago crossed by such elevation, shall when and as the grade of such street shall be changed, as in this ordinance provided, at its own expense, without claim for damages, depress and conform the grade of its track or tracks to the said change of grade of said streets both during and after depressing said streets, and nothing in this ordinance shall operate to be held to relieve such street railway companies from any liability now existing of paving such street between or on either side of its tracks in the manner and form as now required, or of making the necessary depressions as hereinbefore provided.

Paragraph 5. Nothing in this ordinance contained shall be so construed as to require the said railway and railroad companies, or either of them, to assume or pay any incidental or consequential damages to adjacent property or business caused by the passage and enforcement of this ordinance, or by the excavation, depression or change of grade or location made in any of the public avenues, streets or alleys, or of the railways of either of said companies, or to defend any suit or suits which may be brought against the said railway or railroad companies, or either of them, or against the City of Chicago, or against any other party or parties for the recovery of any such damages; but it is understood and the City of Chicago hereby agrees that all such damages, if there are any, shall be adjusted and paid by the City of Chicago, and the said city will assume the defense of any and all suits brought for the recovery of the same intervening therein if necessary for such purposes and will wholly relieve said railway and railroad companies from defending the same, and will assume and pay all judgments recovered therein; provided, however, that each of said companies shall be liable respectively for such damage as may arise from the negligent performance by said company of any of the obligations imposed upon it by this ordinance. The above stipulations in this paragraph are, however, upon the condition precedent that in case any suit be brought against any of said companies, said company will before the last day to plead therein give notice in writing to the Mayor and Corporation Counsel of said City for the purpose of enabling such defense to be made by the City.

Paragraph 6. Whenever the elevated roadbed and tracks constructed under and in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance shall pass over any street, alley, avenue or public way at which according to the terms of this ordinance a subway is required to be constructed by said railway or railroad company, or companies, which street, alley, avenue or public way shall not already be paved or provided with sidewalks at the time of such construction, and for which pavement or sidewalks no ordinance shall have been passed by the City Council of the City of Chicago, then and in that case the paving of such subway shall be delayed until the improvement of the portions of the street contiguous shall be ordered by the City Council and the contract therefor shall be let. Thereupon upon notice from the Commissioner of Public Works, said company or companies, shall proceed at once with the work of paving or with the construction of sidewalks in accordance with the provisions of Section 8, Paragraphs 1 to 4 inclusive, of this ordinance. Should any company, or companies, after such notice fail or neglect so to proceed with its work, the Commissioner of Public Works of the City of Chicago shall have and is hereby given the right, power and authority to take charge of and cause such work to be done, and the expense thereof shall thereupon be paid by such delinquent company, or companies.

Paragraph 7. Said railway and railroad company, or companies, and any contractor employed by it, or them, in the execution of the work herein required to be done shall have the right in the performance of any work done in carrying out the provisions of this ordinance, to take water from the public water system of said city and to use the same in such work free of all charge or expense.

Section 9. All the work hereinbefore in this ordinance required to be done by said company, or companies, upon or in connection with the public avenues and streets of the city shall be done and performed under the superintendence and subject to the inspection and approval of the Commissioner of Public Works of said City. At least ten (10) days prior to the commencement of any part of such work the plans and specifications therefor shall be submitted to said Commissioner of Public Works for his examination and if found to be in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance in so far as this ordinance contains specific provisions, if they shall be satisfactory to the Commissioner of Public Works in regard to matters and details which by this ordinance are left to his discretion and judgment, such plans shall be approved by him and after such approval all of the work outlined and included therein shall be constructed in strict conformity therewith.

SECTION 10. Permission and authority are hereby given to said companies, or either of them, whenever the same shall be necessary in the prosecution of the work they are herein authorized or required to perform, to obstruct temporarily any public street, avenue or alley to such extent and for such length of time as may be approved by the Commissioner of Public Works; and they are also hereby authorized whenever the same shall become necessary to erect and maintain temporary structures and false work in any of said streets and avenues during the construction of their said elevated railroads, subject to the like approval of the Commissioner of Public Works.

SECTION 11. When the said railway and railroad companies in Section 1 of this ordinance mentioned shall have elevated their respective tracks in accordance with the terms of this ordinance, so that the same shall be ready for use, then and thereupon all provisions of the ordinances of the City of Chicago relating to the speed of railway trains, the length of trains, the number of cars to constitute a train, the ringing of locomotive bells, the use of train or engine lights, the sounding of signals before starting trains and the maintenance of gates, flagmen, watchmen, signals and signal towers shall cease to be applicable to said railroads; provided, however, this ordinance is not to be construed as a waiver or surender by the City of Chicago of any of its police powers or of the right at any time hereafter to pass necessary and reasonable ordinances in relation to the matters last above enumerated. After such elevation it shall be unlawful for any person or persons, save employes of said companies, or any of them, in the discharge of their duties to enter or be upon or to walk along or across the said elevated structure or roadway at any place. If any person shall willfully trespass upon said elevated roadway, such person and all others aiding, abetting or assisting therein shall be liable to a fine of not less than five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars for each and every offense.

SECTION 12. In consideration of the acceptance of this ordinance by said railway and railroad companies and of the agreement by said companies to do and perform all the obligations imposed upon them by this ordinance, the City of Chicago upon its part undertakes and agrees that upon the lines of railroads described in Paragraphs one (1) and two (2) of Section 1 of this ordinance, if it shall at any time require a crossing at any street or streets, avenue, alley or public way for which no subway is provided in the schedule of subways contained in this ordinance, or shall open, lay out or extend any street, avenue or public way across the right of way of said companies, or either of them, between West Madison street on the north and Ogden avenue on the south, under the tracks of the Belt Railway Company of Chicago; and between South 45th avenue on the east and South 48th avenue on the west, under the tracks of the Chicago Terminal Transfer Railroad Company, such crossings shall be made by subways only and no claim for compensation on account of land taken for right of way of said street or streets, avenue, alley or public way shall be made by said railway or railroad company, or companies, whose right of way is to be crossed, and such waiver of compensation shall attach to and run with such lands in the hands of any grantee or grantees of said railway or railroad company, or companies, but the sole cost and expense of the construction of such subway or subways and of such bridge or bridges, as may be necessary to carry all the tracks on said companies' right of way shall be borne and paid for by the City of Chicago without expense to said railway and railroad company, or companies, mentioned in this ordinance. And in no case shall any such bridge or bridges, or such subway or subways so to be built be inferior in any respect to the bridges and subways to be built by said railway and railroad companies under the terms of this ordinance. Such bridge or bridges, subway or subways so to be built at the expense of said city shall conform in all respects to the general form and quality of material of the bridges and subways provided for in this ordinance to be built at the expense of said railway and railroad companies, except as to such changes in the details thereof as may be agreed upon by the City Engineer of the City of Chicago and the Chief Engineer of said railway and railroad company, or companies. The work of such construction shall be done by the railway and railroad companies and the amount to be paid by the City of Chicago for such work and construction shall not exceed the actual and reasonable cost thereof. Such bridges respectively, shal support all the tracks of said companies then existing and in use across the proposed street or streets, avenues, alleys or public way at the time of the construction of such subway or subways across such right of way. But said railway and railroad company, or companies, shall not be required to do any work toward the construction of any such subways until the cost thereof as may be estimated by the City Engineer and the Chief Engineer of said railway or railroad company, or companies, shall have been first paid over to said railway or railroad company, or companies, or deposited in some responsible bank for its or their benefit and to be paid over to said railway or railroad company, or companies, at once upon the completion of said work. The grade of the roadbed and tracks of said railway or railroad company, or companies, shall be and remain at the grade hereinbefore specified.

Section 13. The elevation of the roadbed and tracks of the Belt Railway Company of Chicago, as required by the provisions of this ordinance, and the use and operation of said tracks when so elevated being impracticable unless and until the roadbed and tracks of the elevated railway built by the Metropolitan West Side Side Elevated Railway Company which elevated railway crosses above the Belt Railway Company of Chicago between Harrison street and Flournoy street shall be raised at the crossing to a sufficient height above the proposed elevated tracks of said Belt Railway Company of Chicago to prevent any obstruction to or interference with the construction, maintenance, use and operation of such proposed elevated tracks, said Metropolitan West Side Elevated Railway Company is hereby ordered and required to elevate the plane of the roadbed and tracks of its elevated railway at the crossing aforesaid, to such a height above the roadbed and tracks of the Belt Railway Company of Chicago when raised to the elevation herein required that there shall be a minimum clearance of headway of not less than twenty (20) feet between the proposed elevated tracks of said last named railway company at the lowest part of the overhead structure of said Metropolitan West Side Elevated Railway Company; the tracks of said elevated railway company on each side of said cross to be adjusted to connect with the tracks laid upon the overhead structure at said crossing in such a manner and using such gardients as said elevated railway company may deem proper.

Said Metropolitan West Side Elevated Railway Company shall begin the work of elevating its roadbed and tracks at said crossing within thirty (30) days after said Belt Railway Company of Chicago shall have notified said Metropolitan West Side Elevated Railway Company that they are ready at said point of crossing to commence the work of elevation of its track herein ordered and required. The work of such elevation by said Metropolitan West Side Elevated Railway Company shall be fully and finaly completed within ninety (90) days after the expiration of the thirty days mentioned in said notice herein provided to be given to it by said above mentioned railway company; and in case of a failure or default on the part of said Metropolitan West Side Elevated Railway Company, its successors or assigns, to complete the work of such elevation within the period of ninety (90) days, said Metropolitan West Side Elevated Railway Company shall pay the City of Chicago as assessed, agreed and liquidated damages the sum of two hundred ($200.00) dollars per day for each and every day that said default shall continue, and such elevation of the structure and tracks of said Metroplitan West Side Elevated Railway Company shall remain unfinished and incomplete, it being agreed that said sum of two hundred ($200.00) dollars per day is not a penalty but is the actual amount of damage that will be sustained by the City of Chicago through any such default on the part of said Metropolitan West Side Elevated Railway Company. But the foregoing provision in relation to the payment of said damage shall not be in any way held to interfere with the rights to be derived by the City under the provisions contained in Section 14 of this ordinance, but shall be deemed and construed as an additional remedy in behalf of the city in case of default on the part of the Metropolitan West Side Elevated Railway Company. The time of delay, if any, occasioned by strikes, riots, or unavoidable accidents shall be added to the ninety (90) days above provided for the completion of said work.

Section 14. The Belt Railway Company of Chicago and the Chicago Terminal Transfer Railroad Company, who are required to elevate their tracks, shall commence the work of such elevation after the Metropolitan West Side Elevated Railway Company's elevated road shall be raised at the crossing of that road, over the proposed elevated tracks of the above two named companies to the elevation required by Section 13 of this ordinance; provided this ordinance shall have been accepted by the said above mentioned railway and railroad companies hereby required to elevate their tracks.

After such work has been commenced the same shall be fully and finally completed on or before the 31st day of December, A. D. 1916, unless prevented by strike or strikes, or restrained by injuction or other order or process of a court of competent jurisdiction.

The time during which said railway and railroad companies shall be prevented by strike or strikes, or legal proceedings, as aforesaid, shall be added to the time hereby limited for the completion of said work; provided said railway and railroad company, or companies, give notice in writing to the Corporation Counsel of the City of Chicago of the institution of said legal proceedings. The City of Chicago shall thereupon have the right to intervene in any suit or proceedings brought by any person or persons seeking to enjoin or restrain, or in any manner interfere with the prosecution of said work and move for a dissolution of such injuction and restraining order and for any other proper order in such suit.

Section 15. Each of said companies which are required by this ordinance to elevate its tracks including the Metropolitan West Side Elevated Railway Company shall do its portion of the work in accordance with the terms hereof in apt and proper time so as not to interfere with the proper and orderly prosecution of such work as a whole. Should any of said companies fail or neglect so to prosecute its work the Commissioner of Public Works of the City of Chicago shall have, and he is hereby given the right, power and authority to give ten (10) days' notice in writing to such delinquent company to prosecute such work. If such company shall fail or neglect to comply with said notice the Commissioner of Public Works may take charge of and cause such work to be done and the expense thereof shall thereupon be paid by such delinquent company.

SECTION 16. The Belt Railway Company of Chicago and the Chicago Terminal Transfer Railroad Company are hereby required to commence the work of elevating their roadbed and tracks as hereinbefore specified, on or before the first day of May, A. D. 1907, and shall fully and finally complete the same on or before the 31st day of December, A. D. 1916; except that the time during which said companies shall be prevented from work by strikes, and the time during which it shall be restrained by injunction or other order or process of a court of competent jurisdiction, of which it shall have given notice to the Corporation Counsel of the City of Chicago, and the time in excess of ninety (90) days from the filing of the agreement mentioned in Section 18 of this ordinance, the structure and tracks of the Metropolitan West Side Elevated Railway Company shall have been raised as hereinbefore described in Section 13 of this ordinance, to a height of not less than twenty (20) feet above the elevated tracks hereby required and the time during which any of the said companies required by this ordinance to elevate their respective roadbeds and tracks may be delayed in such work without its own fault, in consequence of any other of said companies to do the work by this ordinance required of it, or in consequence of the failure of any street railway company or corporation to grade or pave any part of any subway or approach required to be graded or paved by such last named street railway company or corporation shall be added to the date herein fixed for the completion of said work; and provided further that, as to that portion of the elevation of the tracks of the Belt Railway Company of Chicago, lying south of 12th street, required under the terms of this ordinance, the said Belt Railway Company shall not be required to so elevate its tracks unless and until the Town Board of the Town of Cicero shall have passed an ordinance which shall agree in its provisions, as to the construction of subways at the various streets, and as to the plane of elevation, with the provisions of this ordinance.

SECTION 17. Nothing in this ordinance named or contained shall be so construed as to prevent said railway or railroad company, or either of them, from locating and constructing the abutments which form the walls of the subways at a sufficient distance back from the building or lot line of the streets, boulevards or avenues, for the purpose of constructing and maintaining in the spaces or recesses so left between said abutments and said building lines, station buildings with all necessary ticket offices and waiting rooms, or other buildings fronting on said streets, boulevards or avenues uniform with the said building lines thereof and entirely within the lines limiting and bounding the right of way of said railway or railroad companies, or either or them, and for the further purpose of constructing and maintaining within said lines stairways and the approaches leading to and from said station builidngs to the elevated platform and tracks above the same for the accommodation and convenience of the passenger traffic of said railway and railroad companies, or for any other purpose in connection with efficient maintenance and operation of the lines.

Any and all portions of any streets, alleys or avenues, extending into or across any of said lines or railway within the limits hereinbefore provided for the elevation of said roadbeds or any of them, except the streets and avenues enumerated above in Section 4, and in which subways are required to be constructed, shall be and the same are hereby discontinued, and vacated under the elevated roadbeds and tracks in the ordinance described and within the limits of the right of way of any of the said railway or railroad companies, and the City of Chicago shall at any time take any proceedings essential to perfect or effectuate such vacation.

SECTION 8. This ordinance shall take effect from and after its passage, approval and publication; provided, however, that this ordinance shall be null and void if said Belt Railway Company of Chicago and the Chicago Terminal Transfer Railroad Company, which are by this ordinance required to elevate their railway tracks, shall not through their respective authorized officers file with the City Clerk of the City of Chicago within sixty (60) days from the passage and approval by the Mayor of this ordinance, agreement or agreements duly executed, whereby said railway and railroad companies shall undertake to do and perform all the matters and things required of them by this ordinance. After the filing of said agreement or agreements, by said companies, and not before, this ordinance shall not be materially modified or amended without the consent of said companies affected by the proposed modification, unless said companies shall be in default in the performance of the several matters and things required by this ordinance and undertaken to be done by such agreement.

Nothing in this ordinance shall be a waiver or surrender of the police powers of the city or be taken in any way to deprive the City of Chicago of the right to properly exercise such power.

The following veto message:

MAYOR'S OFFICE,
October 29, 1906.

To the Honorable, the City Council of the City of Chicago:

GENTLEMEN—I return herewith, without my approval, an ordinance passed at the last regular meeting of your Honorable Body, and published at page 1767 of the current printed Council Proceedings, vacating parts of certain alleys in the interest of one S. H. Wheeler, for the reason that by Section 1 of the said ordinance it is provided that the vacation shall not become effective until the dedication of parts of certain lots. Said section does not provide that the property dedicated shall be opened for the public use prior to the taking effect of said vacations, while by Section 2 it is provided that the said ordinance shall be null and void if the dedication does not take place within thirty days and the opening of the land dedicated for public use within ninety days.

I think the ordinance is ambiguous and should be drafted so that the vacations provided for should not take effect until after the land it is proposed to dedicate has been opened up for public use.

I therefore respectfully recommend that the vote by which the said ordinance was passed be reconsidered and that the same be repassed, without the usual reference to a committee, in the following amended form:

"Section 1. That the twelve (12) foot north and south alley, being the east twelve (12) feet of the west seventeen and seventy-two hundredths (17.72) feet of that part of Lots three (3) and four (4), lying between the south line of Park avenue and the north line of West End avenue, of Curtis and Runyan's Subdivision of the east five (5) acres of the west half (½) of the southwest quarter (¼) of Section eleven (11), Township thirty-nine (39) North, Range thirteen (13), East of the Third Principal Meridian, and also the alley running east and west and lying between the west line of the above described north and south alley and a line twelve (12) feet east of and parallel to the west line of Lots one (1) and twelve (12), in Block two (2) of Garfield Park Addition to Chicago, a re-subdivision of Blocks one (1), two (2) and three (3), in Evans' and other subdivision of Blocks one (1) to four (4), in Osborn's Subdivision of the west five (5) acres of the east ten (10) acres of that part of the east half (½) of the west half (½) of the southwest quarter (¼), south of Lake street, in the said Section eleven (11), being those portions of the said alleys shown in red and marked "to be vacated" on the plat hereto attached and made a part hereof, and to which express reference is had, be and the same are hereby vacated and closed; provided, however, that this ordinance shall not take effect and the vacations herein provided for shall not become effective until S. H. Wheeler shall have executed and filed a plat in the office of the Recorder of Deeds of Cook County, Illinois, making a valid dedication to the City of Chicago for the use of the public of the west twelve (12) feet of said Lots one (1) and twelve (12) in said Block two (2), the portions of said lots so to be dedicated being those portions of said lots shown in yellow and marked 'to be dedicated' on the said plat; and provided, further, that said plat shall be so filed within thirty (30) days from the date of the passage of this ordinance, and that said two strips of land herein required to be dedicated be opened for public use within ninety (90) days from the passage of this ordinance.

"Section 2. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage; provided, that if said two strips of land herein required to be dedicated be not so dedicated within thirty (30) days from the passage of this ordinance, and be not opened for public use within ninety (90) days from the passage of this ordinance, then this ordinance shall be null and void and of no effect."

Respectfully submitted, paid by the Company, but no payment therefor shall be made without the written approval of said Board.

The Company shall purchase materials and employ engineers, superintendents, clerks, foremen and workmen and shall pay all expenses of every nature, including legal expenses, necessary to the proper, complete and prompt performance of the above mentioned work, including, also, claims for damages for injuries to persons and property arising or growing out of accidents occurring during the prosecution of said work and incident thereto, upon the lowest advantageous terms and subject to the approval of the said Board of Supervising Engineers, and to the actual amount paid by the Company in and about carrying out each and all of the requirements of this Section, shall be added .... per cent. of such amount as a fair and proper allowance to the Company for conducting the said work and furnishing said equipment and for its services in procuring funds therefor.

The said Board of Supervising Engineers shall, on or before the tenth day of each month, make a report in writing, dated the first day of such month, to the City Comptroller of the amount of money actually expended during the previous month by the Company in and about carrying out the requirements of this Section, together with said ..... per cent. of such amounts; and the interest provided in Section .. hereof as a deduction from gross receipts shall begin to run upon the total amount of each such certificate from and after the date thereof.

The total amount so certified by the said Board of Supervising Engineers (including the said additional per cent. thereof as hereinabove provided) shall be final and binding upon both parties hereto and shall be conclusively held and taken as the cost of the said construction, reconstruction, equipment, re-equipment, extensions and additions to plant and property, underground trolleys, new lines, and other additions to plant and property, which shall be paid by the said City upon the taking over of the said street railway system as in this ordinance provided.

The said Board of Supervising Engineers shall have power to determine what work shall be treated as construction, reconstruction, equipment, re-equipment, extensions, new lines, underground trolleys or additions to plant or property to be paid for by the Company out of the capital funds to be provided by it for that purpose, and what shall be treated as repairs and renewals, to be paid for out of the gross receipts of the Company from the operation of the street railway system hereby authorized.

REMOVAL OF TRACKS.

(*) Section 8. If the Company shall hereafter cease to operate over any of its tracks or any portion thereof, it shall remove such unused tracks upon the order of the City Council. Failure to operate cars for the carriage of passengers at least once within every hour of each day between the hours of six (6) A. M. and eight (8) P. M. over any part of a street or public place in which tracks of the Company are laid, shall be treated as a cessation of operation of its tracks in such part of street or public place within the meaning of this Section, unless such operation is interfered with by unavoidable accidents, labor strikes or litigation brought without connivance of the Company; provided, however, that the foregoing provision shall not be construed to require the removal of curves or turn-outs or of connecting tracks authorized by this ordinance or the exhibits hereto to be constructed and maintained for use during rush hours or for emergency use in case of fire or accident, or such tracks as may be necessary for a connection with the Company's property used for street railway purposes.

In every case of removal of tracks as aforesaid, the Company shall restore the street or public way to the condition of the other portions thereof, all at its own expense.

If the Company shall fail within a reasonable time to remove any such tracks on order of the Commissioner of Public Works, the said City may remove them, charging the expense thereof to the Company; provided, however, that nothing in this section contained shall relieve the Company from its obligations at all times to render adequate service on its street railways.

RIGHT TO SELL UNNECESSARY PROPERTY.

SECTION 9. The Company shall not hereafter sell any of the property belonging to it at the time of the passage of this ordinance or thereafter acquired by it as an addition to or extension of, or for use in connection with its said street railways, except as the same may become unnecessary or unadapted to the proper operation and maintenance of said street railways under the terms of this ordinance, and before making any such sale the Company shall secure the written approval of such sale by the said Board of Supervising Engineers, and such written approval of said Board shall be conclusive of the right of the Company to sell and transfer complete title to the purchaser, who shall not be obliged to look to the application of the proceeds of such sale.

In the event of any such sale made during the period of reconstruction, the proceeds shall be deducted from the amount allowed to the Company for such reconstruction, and in the event of a sale after such reconstruction is completed, the proceeds thereof shall be deposited with the depositary named in Section .... of this ordinance and shall constitute a part of the reserve fund provided for in said section.

16 the Company.

22 boxes as the Board of Supervising Engineers shall approve and require.

23 Each double-truck car shall be equipped with two sets of brakes, one of 24 which shall be a hand-brake and the other an efficient power-brake of modern,
25 improved type. Each single truck car shall be equipped with an efficient hand-
26 brake or other brake approved by the Board of Supervising Engineers.

Cleanliness and Ventilation.

27 Said cars shall at all times be kept clean and in good repair, and shall be 28 thoroughly ventilated.

Heating.

29 The said cars shall be kept heated at the temperature of fifty (50) degrees
30 Fahrenheit, as nearly as practicable, and each car shall contain a standard ther-31 mometer appropriately placed to enable passengers to see that this provision is 32 complied with.

Lighting.

33 All cars (operated by electricity) shall during the hours between sunset

35 by electric light or other illuminant approved by said Board of Supervising

40 The Company may permit advertisements in its cars, but no advertisement
41 shall be placed upon the outside of any car, and only such space shall be used 42 for advertisements on the inside of cars as may be approved as to size and

(*) SECTION 11. The Company, except as to chartered cars to private parties and as in this ordinance provided, shall be entitled to charge passengers, during the term of this ordinance, the following rates of fare, to wit:

For a continuous trip in one general direction, within the present limits of the City, over its street railways covered by this ordinance and all extensions thereof (whether owned, leased or operated by it) the sum of five cents (5c) for each passenger twelve years of age or over, and three cents (3c) for each passenger under twelve (12) years of age; provided that children under seven (7) years of age accompanied by parent or guardian shall be permitted to ride free.

Universal Transfers.

Every such passenger may demand and upon such demand shall receive from the conductor of the car upon which he first takes passage, or from some authorized agent of the Company, a transfer. Said transfer shall entitle such passenger to ride upon any other specified line of said street railway system owned, leased or operated by the Company, which connects with, crosses, intersects or comes within a distance of two hundred (200) feet of the line of said street railway upon which the passenger first took passage and paid his fare.

The payment of a single fare shall not entitle a passenger to reverse his general direction of travel. If necessary to enable a passenger to reach his destination the conductor or other authorized agent of the Company shall issue without additional charge, a transfer upon a transfer, the same as required upon payment of a cash fare; the intention being that for a single fare the Company shall carry any passenger for a single continuous ride over any of the said lines of street railway owned, operated or leased by it, within the present limits of the said City, so long as such ride is in the same general direction, although some of the lines necessary to be used by such passenger in arriving at his destination intersect or cross one another; but the Company shall not be obliged to give any transfer to any passenger who could reach his destination without such transfer, by using a through car or a less circuitous route.

In every instance the transfer given to a passenger may designate the point or place of transfer, and the same must be used at such point or place, within a reasonable time, not exceeding fifteen (15) minutes after such point or place is reached by the car from which the passenger is transferred, provided that within said fifteen minutes a car shall pass such point or place of transfer in the direction and upon the route indicated by said transfer. A passenger upon any car unreasonably delayed through the fault, negligence or inability of the Company shall be entitled to receive a transfer to a car upon the nearest line of the Company going in the same general direction as the delayed car.

The Company shall also on its cars accept and honor as fares, transfers

39 issued by any other corporation to passengers upon any line of street railway
40 covered or authorized by the said ordinance to the Chicago City Railway Com-
41 pany and the ..... Company, herein-
42 above referred to as presented for passage in the City Council of said City, con-43 currently with this ordinance, and which lines connect with any of said lines of 44 the Company, under the same conditions and with like effect as though both 45 lines of street railway were owned by the Company and the transfers were 46 issued under the foregoing provisions of this ordinance, upon condition that the 47 corporation issuing such transfers will accept and honor, at such transfer point 48 upon its street railway lines, transfers issued by the Company to its passengers.

49 The said proposed arrangement contemplates that in every instance the 50 street railway company accepting any such transfer shall give to the passenger 51 presenting it the same accommodations and the same transfers, if requested, 52 to its other line or lines, as such passenger would be entitled to receive if he had 53 paid a cash fare.

54 The City Council will by ordinance with appropriate penalties provide against 52 the use of street railway transfer privileges by sale, barter, gift or otherwise.

53 The Company, acting by itself or in conjunction with the other companies 54 to which the provisions of this Section apply, may with the approval of the 55 said Board of Supervising Engineers, adopt reasonable rules and regulations not 56 inconsistent with the provisions of this ordinance, for the transfer of passengers
57 as provided for herein, and for the prevention of the fraudulent use of transfer 58 privileges.

NO PASSES, EMPLOYES, POLICEMEN AND FIREMEN FREE.

SECTION 12. No passes of any kind or description shall be issued or given 2 to any person, and no person, except employes of the Company, policemen and
3 firemen, respectively in full uniform, shall be permitted to ride upon any street
4 railway without the payment of the full rate of fare prescribed in this ordinance;
5 provided that the Company may issue to its employes free tickets for use while 6 engaged in the performance of their duties. The Company shall keep a record
7 of the number of such free tickets and to whom issued.

THROUGH ROUTES.

(*) SECTION 13. Whenever the said City shall grant to the Company and 2 to the corporation operating a street railway northwards from Twenty-second 3 street and southwards from Thirty-eighth street in Kedzie avenue a license or 4 franchise to connect their lines in said avenue with the lines of this Company,
5 the Company will co-operate with such other corporation to operate a through 6 line of cars in said avenue; and, also, whenever the said city shall grant to the 7 Company and to the corporation operating a street railway northwards from 8 Twenty-second street and southwards from Archer avenue, in Ashland avenue, a 9 license or franchise to connect their lines in said avenue with the lines of this 10 Company, the Company shall co-operate with such other corporation to operate
11 a through line of cars in said avenue; and said corporations shall thereafter 12 operate and maintain said through lines of cars in the said streets and avenues,
13 respectively; provided, that the Company shall only be required to operate said
14 through lines across or over any river, when the said City or some third party shall provide and maintain a bridge across the same upon which it may operate its cars.

If the said City or any of the companies operating said through routes shall at any time desire to have any through route discontinued, or to have any additional through route established, or any discontinued through route re-established, what the traffic warrants shall be the test of the reasonableness of any such discontinuance, establishment or re-establishment. If the companies and the said City shall differ and fail to agree touching any such discontinuance, establishment or restablishment of a through route, such matter of difference shall be referred to the Board of Supervising Engineers, and their decisions shall be binding upon the companies and the said City.

The through routes herein mentioned shall be established and put in operation immediately after the necessary reconstruction of the tracks covered by such routes.

To carry out the establishment of the through lines provided for in this section, the Company will enter into a reasonable operating agreement approved by the said Board of Supervising Engineers, with any other corporation or corporations concerned, whenever required by the said City. Upon the establishment of through lines, the transfer of passengers at the points of connection of the tracks of the two companies upon such streets may be discontinued, but shall be re-establishing in case such through routes are for any cause discontinued, Passengers upon the through cars operated upon any through routes, while traveling over the tracks of each company shall be entitled to the same facilities as to transfers as such companies shall be required to give to their own passengers paying cash fares.

STREET SPRINKLING AND CLEANING.

SECTION 14. The Company shall sprinkle, sweep, keep clean and free from snow that portion of each of the streets occupied by its right-of-way, as provided in "Exhibit B," and if it shall be found practicable to have the streets occupied by its tracks swept and sprinkled their entire width by the Company, or to have street sweepings, garbage or other refuse removed by means of street cars at night, the Company shall perform said service, or so much thereof as shall prove practicable, when so ordered by the Mayor and Commissioner of Public Works, and it shall receive for such service reasonable compensation to be fixed by the Board of Supervising Engineers. In case the Company is called upon to remove street sweepings or other refuse, the said City shall furnish suitable and convenient dumping grounds and permit the connection of the Company's tracks therewith. The Company shall have the right to carry on suitable cars the snow required by this ordinance to be removed by it, and also, materials for its own use or for the use of the said City, and to connect its tracks and wires with property necessary to be used for such purposes.

STREET PAVING.

SECTION 15. The Company shall at its own expense, fill, grade, pave and keep in repair that portion of the streets occupied by it, as more specifically provided for in said "Exhibit B."

Grooved Rails.

All new tracks hereafter laid and all tracks in streets hereafter newly paved or repaved shall be of grooved pattern more particularly described in said "Exhibit B."

MAINTENANCE, REPAIRS AND RENEWALS.

SECTION 16. After the completion of the reconstruction and re-equipment particularly required by the terms of said "Exhibit B," and until the rights conferred upon the Company by this ordinance are terminated by the purchase of the said street railway system by the said City or its licensee or by reason of the default of the Company, the Company at all times shall maintain the said street railway system and its entire equipment and appurtenances in first class conditon by making from time to time such repairs and renewals, including street paving and repairs and renewals thereof, as may be necessary or appropriate to give to the public first class street railway service in all respects, and to this end the Company shall expend for maintenace, repairs and renewals, during each and every year the Company continues to operate said street railway system, at least the sum of ..... Dollars, and if said amount is not so expended by the Company during any one year, then at the end of such year the unexpended portion thereof shall be deposited with the ..... Bank of the City of Chicago (hereinafter referred to as the depositary) for the purpose of being used, whenever necessary, for such maintenance, repairs and renewals. The said depositary shall make payment out of said fund upon the order of the Company countersigned by the said Board of Supervising Engineers. The depositary may from time to time be changed with the consent of the Company and the Board of Supervising Engineers.

The whole or any portion of such reserve fund may be used for maintenance, repairs or renewals in addition to the annual expenditure for such purposes herein required. The fixing of the said amount herein, as a minimum amount to be expended annually for maintenance, repairs and renewals, shall not be held or considered as lessening or limiting in any way the obligation of the Company to expend whatever sum or sums may be necessary in the judgment of the said Board of Supervising Engineers to keep the said street railway system and equipment in first class condition in every respect and at all times.

The amount so expended or deposited as a reserve fund shall be considered a part of the operating expenses of the street railway system hereby authorized, but in the event that the said street railway system shall be purchased by the said City or its licensee at any time under the provisions of this ordinance, the amount of said reserve fund in the possession of the said depositary at the time of such purchase shall be turned over to and become the property of the said City or of its said licensee.

PERSONAL INJURY CLAIMS.

SECTION 17. Out of the gross receipts derived from the operation of the street railway system hereby authorized the Company shall pay as a part of the operating expenses, all claims for damages arising or growing out of injuries to persons or to the property of others incident to the operation of said street railway system accruing subsequent to the acceptance of this ordinance by the Company; and the Company may set aside as a separate fund such percentage of said gross receipts as the said Board of Supervisng Engineers shall estimate to be sufficient to protect the Company against all such claims, to the end that if the said City, or its licensee, shall elect to purchase the street railway property of the Company as provided by this ordinance, there shall be then available to the Company a fund sufficient to meet and discharge all legitimate claims for such damages. The percentage thus reserved may be changed from time to time by said Board of Supervising Engineers if and whenever they shall consider that the percentage theretofore reserved is either inadequate or excessive. If the said City or its licensee shall purchase the property of the Company as in this ordinance provided, the Company shall retain the fund then accumulated under the provisions of this section and shall assume and pay and save the said City, or such licensee, harmless from all such claims for damages, but if the fund so retained shall not be sufficient to pay and discharge said claims in full, then the said City, or such licensee as the case may be, shall pay to the Company ..... part of the deficit, but if the fund so retained shall be more than sufficient to pay and discharge said claims in full, then the Company shall pay to the said City or its licensee, as the case may be, ... part of the excess. The said City, however, reserves the right to, and it may at any time, commute a sum not exceeding the City's share of the net receipts for the previous year into a reduction of said rates of fare; and thereafter in the event of such reduction of rates of fare the Company may deduct and retain as its share of the net receipts each year an amount equal to what would have been the Company's share of the net receipts of such year had the passengers carried during such year paid the fares prescribed in Section 11 of of this ordinance, but the Company, after deducting and retaining its share of said net receipts so determined, shall pay over to the said City the remainder if any, of the net receipts for such year less the deductions therefrom hereinabove provided to be made from the said City's share of the net receipts.

City to Establish Sinking Fund for Municipal Purchase.

It is further provided that, subject to the action of the City Council of said City, the said City shall deposit the amount so paid to the said City to the credit of a separate fund to be kept and used for the purchase and construction of street railways by said City.

CAPITAL INVESTMENT LIMITATION.

SECTION 23. After the completion of the construction, reconstruction, equipment and re-equipment provided for in "Exhibit B," the Company shall not be required on account of any underground trolleys, new construction or equipment of any kind or character (other than extensions of the surface lines provided for in this ordinance and the equipment thereof) to increase its capital investment to such an extent that the interest thereon, by this ordinance authorized, would reduce the Company's share of the net receips, as defined in Section Twenty-two (22) hereof, below an amount which in the judgment of said Board of Supervising Engineers would be reasonable.

SECTION 24. The Company, so long as it continues to operate any of the said street railways under this ordinance, and on or before the first day of February in each year shall prepare and file with the City Comptroller of said City annual reports for the preceding year ending on the 31st day of December. The Company, in consideration of the grant made by this ordinance, upon the terms and conditions herein expressed, agrees to waive, surrender and release, and by the acceptance of this ordinance, the Company does waive, surrender and release all and every one of the rights and claims of the Company of every kind and nature, in the streets of the said City under and by virtue of all legislative acts of the State of Illinois and of the said City, other than as herein granted.

Your Committee on Local Transportation to whom was referred an order directing the Committee on Local Transportation to report the result of the test made by the Northwestern Elevated Railroad Company to deaden or lessen the noise caused by the operation of its trains, having had the same under advisement, beg leave to report and recommend that the accompanying communication from the Superintendent of Streets be published and placed on file.

CHARLES WERNO,
Chairman.

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS,
CHICAGO, October 25, 1906.

Mr. Charles Werno, Chairman, Judiciary Committee:

DEAR SIR—Permit me to call your attention to the following copy of report made by my Engineer, Mr. Van Wakeman, relative to the lessening of noise produced by operation of the Union Loop:

"On the east track of the Union Loop, between Monroe and Jackson streets, gravel has been placed between and over ties, in the nature of an experiment looking toward the lessening of noise caused by the operation of trains. This is in the nature and has the effect of loading the structure. The volume of noise may be lessened to some extent, but not materially. The character of the noise is changed as might be expected, the tone given out being lower.

"It is my belief that 85 per cent of the noise is given out by the structure itself, rather than by the rail or ties, the vibration on the rail being carried by the ties to the steel structure. Any scheme which would insulate the ties from the structure would be effective in abating the nuisance.

"Pads of any non-conducting material between the ties and the structure would be effective as long as they retained their resiliency. However, in my belief, the simplest method would be the construction of a deck-bridge, similar to those used by most large railway systems. This would consist of a deck of suitable timbers with side rails, the whole containing ballast of broken stone or gravel. The ties to be embedded in the ballast with, at least, four to six inches of ballast between the bottom of the tie and the deck.

"An arrangement of this kind would raise the grade of the rails and the station platforms. Trestles and bridges of this character give out no more noise than the ordinary roadbed."

Yours truly,

M. J. DOHERTY,
Superintendent of Streets.

Paragraph 11. The railroad and railway companies mentioned in this ordinance, and each of them, may and they are hereby authorized to construct such elevated embankments the full width of their respective right-of-way and may construct, maintain and operate thereon such number of tracks as each may respectively deem necessary or convenient for the transaction of its business and to carry such additional tracks over all intervening streets, avenues or alleys in the same manner as is Viaduct in South Western Avenue, North of the North End of the Bridge Across the West Fork of the South Branch of the Chicago River, Over the Depressed Tracks of the Illinois Northern Railway Company.

The depression of the roadbed and tracks of the Illinois Northern Railway Company, as required by Section 1, Paragraph 8a of this ordinance, will render the use and operation of said tracks when so depressed, impractical unless the bridge at South Western avenue shall be raised to a sufficient height above the proposed depressed tracks of said company, so as to prevent any obstruction or interference with the use and operation of such proposed depressed tracks, it is hereby ordered and required that the proposed viaduct over the depressed tracks of the Illinois Northern Railway Company shall have a clear span of twenty-six (26) feet, and that the top of the rail shall be six (6) feet above city datum, and the clearance from top of the rail to the lowest part of the superstructure of the viaduct, sixteen and one-half (16.5) feet.

Section 4b. The grade of all the streets that intersect the approaches to subways, as described in Section 4a of this ordinance, shall be depressed so as to conform to the grade of the approaches into such subways.

SECTION 4c. SECTION 5. All such excavations shall be made in the streets as may be required for the depression of such subways and the approaches thereto. But the depressed portions of the streets shall be restored to serviceable condition for the use of the public as soon as practicable, and all water pipes, conduits, sewers and other similar substructures belonging to the city that may be disturbed by such excavations or required to be moved or deflected from the position in which they are found shall be replaced or suitable expedients shall be devised and provided to restore them as fully as may be to their former state of usefulness, but the gradients of the sewers shall not be reduced in any event. All such work shall be done by the respective railway and railroad companies as indicated in Section 4a and at their sole expense, except as herein otherwise provided, and if in the construction of any of said subways or approaches it shall become necessary to disturb, remove or destroy any pipes, conduits, wires or other property belonging to any private corporation or individual, all of the cost and expense thereof and all damage thereto shall be borne and assumed by the City of Chicago, and the said city will by condemnation, purchase or otherwise secure to said railway and railroad companies the free and uninterrupted right to prosecute its or their work and will save the said railway and railroad companies harmless from any and all claims, demands and suits arising therefrom and all damages which may be recovered therefrom.

SECTION 6. The grades of all the streets and alleys in which any subways are to be built in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance, or where streets shall be depressed in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance, along the line of the several subways shall be and the same are hereby changed so as to conform to the grades of such subways as they shall be depressed pursuant to the provisions of this ordinance.

SECTION 7. Provision shall be made for the drainage of the several subways wherever the streets are depressed, as provided for in this ordinance, by the construction of receiving basins properly located in or immediately adjacent to said subways, which said receiving basins shall be connected with and discharge their contents into the adjacent city sewers. In case the lowest point of the surface of any of said subways should be below the grade of the adjacent sewer, some other adequate means of drainage satisfactory to the Commissioner of Public Works must be devised and provided by said railway and railroad companies at their expense.

SECTION 8, Paragraph 1. The subways and the approaches thereto so to be constructed by said companies, in said streets and avenues aforesaid, wherever the same shall be depressed, shall all conform to the following structural requirements in this section mentioned, namely: The roadways shall be paved with a single course of vitrified brick of standard quality, laid at right angles with the curb lines and set upon a solid foundation of hydraulic cement concrete of not less than six (6) inches thick or deep when solidly tamped in place and otherwise finished and properly crowned ready for the brick wearing surface, between which and the concrete there shall be interposed a layer of screened sand not less than one-half inch thick. Each of said railway and railroad companies shall execute a good and sufficient bond in the amount of twenty-five thousand ($25,000) dollars conditioned that said railway and railroad companies shall furnish and use such material and workmanship in the construction of the improvements heretofore specified as to insure the same to be free from all defects and to remain in continuous good order and condition, ordinary wear excepted, for a period of ten (10) years from and after the completion and acceptance of the same; and as a guarantee of the faithful performance of the work, the quality of the material furnished and the proper construction of said improvement, the railway and railroad companies hereby agree to keep and maintain said improvement without additional charge or cost to the City of Chicago, in such order and condition as will be satisfactory to the Commissioner of Public Works, ordinary wear excepted, for a period of ten (10) years from and after the completion and acceptance of the same, which keeping and maintaining shall include repairs or the entire reconstruction of the same, the necessity for which may be occasioned by or through the use of faulty or inferior material or workmanship; provided, however, the railway and railroad companies herein specified shall not be required to keep or maintain any part of said improvement under this guarantee which after its completion and acceptance shall have been removed for the purpose of laying or repairing any gas, sewer, water or other pipe or conduit in accordance with a permit granted by the City of Chicago, or to maintain or to renew any part of said improvement that may have been damaged in any manner by any work which shall have been done in accordance with or under the authority of a permit granted by the City of Chicago.

If either of said railway or railroad companies shall fail, neglect or refuse to repair, keep and maintain the said work in accordance with this paragraph within thirty (30) days after notice so to do from the Commissioner of Public Works, the Commissioner of Public Works may proceed to do or cause to have done the work necessary to comply with the same and collect the cost and expense thereof from said railway or railroad company, or companies, mentioned in this ordinance.

Any street railway company occupying any of the streets in the City of Chicago crossed by said proposed elevation, shall when and as the grade of such street shall be changed, as in this ordinance provided, at its own expense, without claim for damages, conform the grade of its track or tracks to the said change of grade of said streets both during and after depressing said streets, and nothing in this ordinance shall operate or be held to relieve such street railway companies from any liability now existing of paving such streets between or on either side of its said tracks in the manner and form as now required.

Paragraph 5. Nothing in this ordinance contained shall be so construed as to require the said railway or railroad companies, or any of them, to assume or pay any damages to adjacent property or business caused by the passage and enforcement of this ordinance, or by the excavation, depression or change of grade made in any of the public avenues, streets or alleys, or of the railways of either of said companies, or to defend any suit or suits which may be brought against the said railway or railroad companies, or any of them, or against the City of Chicago, or against any other party or parties for the recovery of any such damages; but it is understood, and the City of Chicago hereby agrees that all such damages, if there are any, shall be adjusted and paid by the City of Chicago and said city will assume the defense of any and all suits brought for the recovery of the same, intervening therein if necessary for such purpose, and will wholly relieve said railway or railroad companies, and each of them, from defending the same, and will assume and pay all judgments recovered therein; provided, however, that each of said companies shall be liable, respectively, for such damage as may arise from the negligent performance by said company or companies, of any of the obligations imposed by this ordinance.

At least ten (10) days prior to the commencement of any part of such work the plans and specifications therefor shall be submitted to said Commissioner of Public Works for his examination, and if found to be in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance in so far as this ordinance contains specific provisions, and in the absence of such specific provisions, if they shall be satisfactory to the Commissioner of Public Works in regard to matters and details which by this ordinance are left to his discretion and judgment, such plans shall be approved by him and after such approval all of the work outlined and included therein shall be constructed in strict conformity therewith.

SECTION 10. After such elevation it shall be unlawful for any person, or persons, save employes of said companies, or either of them, in the discharge of their duties, to enter or be upon or to walk along or across the said elevated structure or roadway at any place. If any person shall willfully trespass upon said elevated roadway, such person and all others aiding, abetting or assisting therein shall be liable to a fine of not less than five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars for each and every offense.

Section 13. The elevation of the roadbeds and tracks of the Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis Railway Company, the Chicago Terminal Transfer Railroad Company, the Chicago Junction Railway Company, the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railway Company's Lumber District track and Rockwell Street "Y" track, as required by the provisions of this ordinance, and the use and operation of said tracks when so elevated being impracticable unless and until the roadbed and tracks of the elevated railway built by the Metropolitan West Side Elevated Railway Company which elevated railway crosses above the roadbed and tracks of the Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis Railway Company, the Chicago Terminal Transfer Railroad Company, the Chicago Junction Railway Company, the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railway Company's Lumber District track and Rockwell Street "Y" track between Twentieth Street and Twenty-first street shall be raised at the crossing to a sufficient height above the proposed elevated tracks of said companies to prevent any obstruction to or interference with the construction, maintenance, use and operation of such proposed elevated tracks, said Metropolitan West Side Elevated Railway Company is hereby ordered and required to elevate the plane of the roadbed and tracks of its elevated railway at the crossing aforesaid, to such a height above the roadbed and tracks of the Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis Railway Company, the Chicago Terminal Transfer Railroad Company, the Chicago Junction Railway Company, the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railway Company's Lumber District track and the Rockwell Street "Y" track when raised to the elevation herein required, that there shall be a minimum clearance of headway of not less than twenty (20) feet between the proposed elevated tracks of said last named railway companies at the lowest part of the overhead structure of said Metropolitan West Side Elevated Railway Company--the tracks of said elevated railway company on each side of said crossing to be adjusted to connect with the tracks laid upon the overhead structure at said crossing in such a manner and using such gradients as said elevated railway company may deem proper.

Said Metropolitan West Side Railway Company shall begin the work of elevating its roadbed and tracks at said crossing within thirty (30) days after said Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis Railway Company, the Chicago Terminal Transfer Railroad Company, the Chicago Junction Railway Company, and the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railway Company shall have notified said Metropolitan West Side Elevated Railway Company that they are ready at said point of crossing to commence the work of elevating its tracks herein ordered and required. The work of such elevation by said Metropolitan West Side Elevated Railway Company shall be fully and finally completed within ninety (90) days after the expiration of the thirty days mentioned in said notice herein provided to be given to it by said above mentioned railway company; and in case of a failure or default on the part of said Metropolitan West Side Elevated Railway Company, its successors or assigns, to complete the work of such elevation within the period of ninety (90) days, said Metropolitan West Side Elevated Railway Company shall pay the City of Chicago as assessed, agreed and liquidated damages, the sum of two hundred ($200.00) dollars per day for each and every day that said default shall continue, and such elevation of the structure and tracks of said Metropolitan West Side Elevated Railway Company shall remain unfinished and incomplete, it being agreed that said sum of two hundred ($200.00) dollars per day is not a penalty but is the actual amount of damage that will be sustained by the City of Chicago through any such default on the part of said Metropolitan West Side Elevated Railway Company. But the foregoing provision in relation to the payment of said damage shall not be in any way held to interfere with the rights to be derived by the city under the provisions contained in Section 14 of this ordinance, but shall be deemed and construed as an additional remedy in behalf of the city in case of default on the part of the Metropolitan West Side Elevated Railway Company. The time of delay, if any, occasioned by strikes, riots, or unavoidable accidents shall be added to the ninety (90) days above provided for the completion of said work.

SECTION 14. The Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis Railway Company, the Chicago Terminal Transfer Railroad Company, the Chicago Junction Railway Company and the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railway Company who are required to elevate their tracks, shall commence the work of such elevation after the Metropolitan West Side Elevated Railway Company's elevated road shall be raised at the crossing of that road over the proposed elevated tracks of the above named companies to the elevation required by Section 13 of this ordinance; provided this ordinance shall have been accepted by the said above mentioned railway and railroad companies hereby required to elevate their tracks.

After such work has been commenced the same shall be fully and finally completed on or before the 31st day of December, A. D. 1909, unless prevented by strike or strikes, or restrained by injuction or other order or process of a court of competent jurisdiction. The time during which said railway and railroad companies shall be prevented by strike or strikes, or legal proceedings, as aforesaid, shall be added to the time hereby limited for the completion of said work; provided said railway and railroad company, or companies give notice in writing to the Corporation Counsel of the City of Chicago of the institution of said legal proceedings. The City of Chicago shall thereupon have the right to intervene in any suit or proceedings brought by any person or persons seeking to enjoin or restrain or in any manner interfere with the prosecution of said work and move for a dissolution of such injunction and restraining order and for any other proper order in such suit.

Section 15. Each of the railway and railroad companies mentioned in this ordinance which are hereby required to elevate their roadbeds and tracks shall fully and finally complete said work of elevation on or before the thirty-first day of December, A. D. 1909, unless prevented by strikes or riots or restrained by injunction or other order or process of a court of competent jurisdiction. The time during which said companies shall be prevented by strike or strikes, riot or riots, or legal proceedings as aforesaid, shall be added to the time hereby limited for the completion of said work, provided said railway and railroad company, or companies, give notice to the Corporation Counsel of the City of Chicago of the institution of said legal proceedings. The City of Chicago shall thereupon have the right to intervene in any suit or proceedings brought by any person or persons seeking to enjoin or restrain or in any manner interfere with the prosecution of said work and move for a dissolution of such injunction and restraining order and for any other proper order in such suit.

And it is further distinctly understood and agreed that if said railway and railroad companies, or either of them, shall be delayed in the prosecution of the said work required to be done under the provisions of this ordinance, by reason of the obstruction of pipes, conduits, wires or other property of private corporations or individuals, as mentioned in Section 5 of this ordinance, or by reason of any delay on the part of the City of Chicago or any of its officers in performing the duties imposed upon the city and its officers by this ordinance in respect to the work herein required to be done by said railway and railroad companies respectively, then and in that case the time which said railway and railroad companies, or either of them, shall be so delayed shall be added to the time during which said companies are required by the terms of this ordinance to complete said work.

Section 16. Each of said companies which are required by this ordinance to elevate its tracks, including the Metropolitan West Side Elevated Railway Company, shall do its portion of the work in accordance with the terms hereof in apt and proper time, so as not to interfere with the proper and orderly prosecution of such work as a whole. Should any of said companies fail or neglect so to prosecute its or their work, the Commissioner of Public Works shall have and is hereby given the right, power and authority to give ten (10) days' notice in writing to such delinquent company, or companies, to prosecute such work. If any such company or companies shall fail or neglect to comply with said notice the Commissioner of Public Works may take charge of and cause such work to be done and the expense thereof shall thereupon be paid by such delinquent company, or companies. Any time during which either of said companies may be prevented by delay of the other of said companies shall be added to the total time allowed to the company so delayed for the completion of its own work.

SECTION 17. The consideration of the rights and privileges hereby granted to the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railway Company are upon the conditions that said railway company shall within three months after the passage of this ordinance procure and dedicate for the purpose of a public street the following described property, to-wit:

That part of Lots twenty (20) to twenty-six (26), both inclusive, of Block three (3), of Johnson's Subdivision of the north half (N. ½) of the west half (W. ½) of the southwest quarter (S. W. ¼), Section nineteen (19), Township thirty-nine (39) North, Range fourteen (14) east of the Third (3d) Principal Meridian, lying north of and adjoining a straight line drawn from a point in the east line of South Western avenue to a point of intersection with the south line of West Eighteenth street sixty-six (66) feet southeasterly of and at right angles and parallel to the southeasterly line of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railway Company's right-of-way.

In case the said Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railway Company shall be unable to purchase said property, or any part thereof described in this section, at a price deemed by said railway company to be reasonable, then the same shall be condemned by the City of Chicago for street purposes and the compensation and damages awarded in such proceedings, including court costs, and all other expense of litigation that may be incurred in such condemnation proceedings shall be paid by said Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railway Company, and said Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railway Company shall have the right to take part in said condemnation proceedings in behalf of the city by counsel especially employed by it and shall have the right to have all witnesses that it may name called to testify in said condemnation proceedings.

avenues uniform with the said building lines thereof, and entirely within the lines limiting and bounding the right-of-way of said railway or railroad companies, or either of them, and for the further purpose of constructing and maintaining within said lines, stairways and approaches leading to and from said station buildings to the elevated platform and tracks above the same for the accommodation and convenience of the passenger traffic of said railway and railroad companies, or for any other purpose in connection with the efficient maintenance and operation of the lines. And any and all portions of any streets, alleys or avenues extending into or across or along any of said lines of railway within the limits hereinbefore provided for any elevation of the roadbed and tracks of any of the railways mentioned in this ordinance, except the streets and avenues enumerated and specified in Section 4a under the head of schedule of subways, and in which subways are required to be constructed, shall be and the same are hereby discontinued and vacated underneath the elevated roadbeds and tracks in this ordinance described and within the limits of the right-of-way of any of said railway companies; and the City of Chicago shall at any time take any proceedings essential to perfect and effectuate such vacations.

SECTION 19. This ordinance shall take effect from and after its passage, approval and publication; provided, however, that it shall be null and void except as to such of the said several railway companies which are in this ordinance permitted and required to elevate their railway tracks, who shall through their duly authorized officers file with the City Clerk of the City of Chicago within thirty (30) days from the passage and approval by the Mayor of this ordinance, their agreement or agreements duly executed, whereby they shall undertake to do and perform all the matters and things required of them respectively by this ordinance. After the filing of such agreement or agreements, by the said several railway and railroad companies, or any of them, this ordinance shall not be materially modified or amended as to the said companies which shall have filed their said agreement or agreements, unless such company or companies shall be in default in the performance of the several matters and things required by this ordinance and undertaken to be done by such agreement.

The failure or default of any of said companies to file such agreement or agreements within the time herein limited shall not avoid or impair any of the rights hereunder of the several railway and railroad companies which shall have filed their agreement or agreements as hereinabove provided, so long as they shall perform the matters and things expressly required of them by this ordinance. Nothing in this ordinance contained shall be a waiver or surrender of the police power of the city or be taken in any way to deprive the city of the right to properly exercise such power.

MAYOR'S OFFICE,
November 12, 1906.

To the Honorable, the City Council:

GENTLEMEN—I return herewith, without my approval, an ordinance passed at the last regular meeting of your Honor able Body, published at page 1857 of the current printed Council Proceedings, granting authority to Z. R. Winslow and E. Heg, doing business under the name of Magner, Winslow and Company, to construct and maintain a sidewalk elevator and double steel doors in the sidewalk in front of the premises known as 314 South Clark street, for the reason that there is no provision in the said ordinance requiring the payment of compensation to the city.

Respectfully,

E. F. DUNNE,
Mayor.

Ald. Hunter moved to reconsider the vote by which the ordinance referred to in the veto message of His Honor, the Mayor, was passed.

The motion prevailed.

Ald. Hunter moved that the ordinance be passed, the veto of His Honor, the Mayor, to the contrary notwithstanding.

The motion was lost.

ALSO,

The following veto message:

MAYOR'S OFFICE,
November 12, 1906.

To the Honorable, the City Council:

GENTLEMEN—I return herewith, without my approval, an ordinance passed at the last regular meeting of your Honorable Body, published at page 1801 of the current printed Council Proceedings, changing the sidewalk grade at the north side of 135th street, between Erie avenue and the first alley east, and on the east side of Erie avenue, between 135th and 136th streets, for the reason that I am advised by the Commissioner of Public Works that the approval of the ordinance will produce confusion in the grades at the points mentioned, especially as there never was an ordinance passed fixing a sidewalk grade of six feet at the point referred to.

Respectfully,

E. F. DUNNE,

Mayor.

Ald. Hunter moved to reconsider the vote by which the ordinance referred to in the veto message of His Honor, the Mayor, was passed.

ALSO,

The following veto message:

MAYOR'S OFFICE,
November 12, 1906.

To the Honorable, the City Council:

GENTLEMEN—I return herewith, without my approval, an order passed at the last regular meeting of your Honorable Body, and published at page 1802 of the current printed Council Proceedings, directing the Commissioner of Public Works to issue a permit to Henry Pratt Boiler and Machinery Company to use a water plug once a month for a period of half an hour each time, for the reason that no compensation is required from the company mentioned and for the further reason that I am advised by the Commissioner of Public Works it would be a dangerous precedent to permit the opening of the water plugs during the winter, since the hydrant might not properly drain and the water might become frozen, thus rendering the hydrant useless in case of fire.

Respectfully,

E. F. DUNNE,

Mayor.

Ald. Hunter moved to reconsider the vote by which the order referred to in the veto message of His Honor, the Mayor, was passed.

The motion prevailed.

After such elevation it shall be unlawful for any person, or persons, save employes of said companies, or either of them, in the discharge of their duties, to enter or be upon or to walk along or across the said elevated structure or roadway at any place. If any person shall willfully trespass upon said elevated roadway, such person and all others aiding, abetting or assisting therein shall be liable to a fine of not less than five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars for each and every offense.

SECTION 12. In consideration of the acceptance of this ordinance by said railway and railroad companies, and of the agreement by each of said companies to do and perform all the obligations imposed upon it by this ordinance; and in further consideration of the benefits derived and to be derived by said City of Chicago from this ordinance: and in further consideration of the agreement on the part of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railway Company to revise the subway in South Washtenaw avenue in accordance with description in Section 4a of this ordinance; and in further consideration of the agreement on the part of the Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis Railway Company, the Chicago Terminal Transfer Railroad Company, and the Chicago and Northwestern Railway Company to revise the subway in West Twelfth street in accordance with description in Section 4a of this ordinance; and the further agreement on the part of the Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis Railway Company, the Chicago Terminal Transfer Railroad Company, the Chicago and Northwestern Railway Company and the Chicago Junction Railway Company to remove in accordance with Section 1, Paragraph 14, of this ordinance, the viaduct now located in Ogden Avenue boulevard, and to build and construct in lieu thereof, without cost or expense to the City of Chicago, a subway as provided for in said Ogden Avenue boulevard, as described in Section 4a of this ordinance, the said City of Chicago on its part undertakes and agrees that upon the lines of railroad described in Paragraphs one (1), two (2), three (3), four (4), four a (4a), five (5), six (6), seven (7) and eight (8), of Section 1 of this ordinance, if it shall at any time require a crossing at any street or streets, avenue, alley or publicway for which no subway is provided in the schedule of subways contained in this ordinance, or shall open, lay out or extend any streets, avenues, alley or publicway across the right-of-way, yards or land of any said companies, between South California avenue and Robey street under the tracks of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railway Company; and between West Taylor street and the South Branch of the West Fork of the Chicago River under the tracks of the Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis Railway Company, the Chicago Terminal Transfer Railroad Company, the Chicago Junction Railway Company and the Lumber District track and Rockwell Street "Y" track of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railway Company; and between West Taylor street and Robey street under the main track of the Chicago Terminal Transfer Railroad Company, such crossings shall be made by subways only and no claim for compensation on account of land taken for right of way of said streets, avenue, alley or publicway shall be made by the railway or railroad company, or companies whose right-of-way, yards or lands are to be crossed, and such waiver of compensation shall attach to and run with such land in the hands of any grantee or grantees of such railway or railroad company, or companies, but the sole cost and expense of the construction of such subway or subways, and of such bridge or bridges, as may be necessary to carry all of the tracks on any of such companies' right-of-way, yards and lands over such subways shall be borne and paid for by the City of Chicago without expense to any of said railway or railroad companies mentioned in this ordinance; and in no case shall any such bridge or bridges, subway or subways so to be built be inferior in any respect to the bridges and subways to be built by said railway and railroad companies under the terms of this ordinance. Such bridges or subways so to be built at the expense of said city shall conform in all respects to the general form and quality of material of the bridges and subways provided for in this ordinance to be built at the expense of said railway and railroad companies, or any of them, except as to such changes in the details thereof as may be agreed upon by the City Engineer of the City of Chicago and the Chief Engineer of said railway and railroad company, or companies. The work of such construction shall be done by the railway and railroad company, or companies, and the amount to be paid by the City of Chicago for such work and construction shall not exceed the actual and reasonable cost thereof. Such bridges, respectively, shall support all the tracks of said company then existing and in use across the proposed streets, avenues, alleys or publicways at the time of the construction of such subway across such right-of-way, yards or lands of any of said companies, but none of said railway or railroad companies shall be required to do any work towards the construction of any such subway or subways until the cost thereof as may be estimated by the City Engineer and Chief Engineer of said railway or railroad company, or companies, shall have been first paid over to such railway or railroad company, or companies, or deposited in some responsible bank for its or their benefit and to be paid over to such railway or railroad company, or companies, at once upon the completion of said work. The grade of the roadbed and tracks of said company or companies shall be and remain at the grade hereinbefore specified.

Section 13. The elevation of the roadbeds and tracks of the Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis Railway Company, the Chicago Terminal Transfer Railroad Company, the Chicago Junction Railway Company, the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railway Company's Lumber District track and Rockwell Street "Y" track, as required by the provisions of this ordinance, and the use and operation of said tracks when so elevated being impracticable unless and until the roadbed and tracks of the elevated railway built by the Metropolitan West Side Elevated Railway Company which elevated railway crosses above the roadbed and tracks of the Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis Railway Company, the Chicago Terminal Transfer Railroad Company, the Chicago Junction Railway Company, the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railway Company's Lumber District track and Rockwell Street "Y" track between Twentieth Street and Twenty-first street shall be raised at the crossing to a sufficient height above the proposed elevated tracks of said companies to prevent any obstruction to or interference with the construction, maintenance, use and operation of such proposed elevated tracks, said Metropolitan West Side Elevated Railway Company is hereby ordered and required to elevate the plane of the roadbed and tracks of its elevated railway at the crossing aforesaid, to such a height above the roadbed and tracks of the Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis Railway Company, the Chicago Terminal Transfer Railroad Company, the Chicago Junction Railway Company, the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railway Company's Lumber District track and the Rockwell Street "Y" track when raised to the elevation herein required, that there shall be a minimum clearance of headway of not less than twenty (20) feet between the proposed elevated tracks of said last named railway companies at the lowest part of the overhead structure of said Metropolitan West Side Elevated Railway Company--the tracks of said elevated railway company on each side of said crossing to be adjusted to connect with the tracks laid upon the overhead structure at said crossing in such a manner and using such gradients as said elevated railway company may deem proper.

Said Metropolitan West Side Railway Company shall begin the work of elevating its roadbed and tracks at said crossing within thirty (30) days after said Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis Railway Company, the Chicago Terminal Transfer Railroad Company, the Chicago Junction Railway Company, and the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railway Company shall have notified said Metropolitan West Side Elevated Railway Company that they are ready at said point of crossing to commence the work of elevating its tracks herein ordered and required. The work of such elevation by said Metropolitan West Side Elevated Railway Company shall be fully and finally completed within ninety (90) days after the expiration of the thirty days mentioned in said notice herein provided to be given to it by said above mentioned railway company; and in case of a failure or default on the part of said Metropolitan West Side Elevated Railway Company, its successors or assigns, to complete the work of such elevation within the period of ninety (90) days, said Metropolitan West Side Elevated Railway Company shall pay the City of Chicago as assessed, agreed and liquidated damages, the sum of two hundred ($200.00) dollars per day for each and every day that said default shall continue, and such elevation of the structure and tracks of said Metropolitan West Side Elevated Railway Company shall remain unfinished and incomplete, it being agreed that said sum of two hundred ($200.00) dollars per day is not a penalty but is the actual amount of damage that will be sustained by the City of Chicago through any such default on the part of said Metropolitan West Side Elevated Railway Company. But the foregoing provision in relation to the payment of said damage shall not be in any way held to interfere with the rights to be derived by the city under the provisions contained in Section 14 of this ordinance, but shall be deemed and construed as an additional remedy in behalf of the city in case of default on the part of the Metropolitan West Side Elevated Railway Company. The time of delay, if any, occasioned by strikes, riots, or unavoidable accidents shall be added to the ninety (90) days above provided for the completion of said work.

SECTION 14. The Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis Railway Company, the Chicago Terminal Transfer Railroad Company, the Chicago Junction Railway Company and the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railway Company who are required to elevate their tracks, shall commence the work of such elevation after the Metropolitan West Side Elevated Railway Company's elevated road shall be raised at the crossing of that road over the proposed elevated tracks of the above named companies to the elevation required by Section 13 of this ordinance; provided this ordinance shall have been accepted by the said above mentioned railway and railroad companies hereby required to elevate their tracks.

After such work has been commenced the same shall be fully and finally completed on or before the 31st day of December, A. D. 1909, unless prevented by strike or strikes, or restrained by injuction or other order or process of a court of competent jurisdiction. The time during which said railway and railroad companies shall be prevented by strike or strikes, or legal proceedings, as aforesaid, shall be added to the time hereby limited for the completion of said work; provided said railway and railroad company, or companies give notice in writing to the Corporation Counsel of the City of Chicago of the institution of said legal proceedings. The City of Chicago shall thereupon have the right to intervene in any suit or proceedings brought by any person or persons seeking to enjoin or restrain or in any manner interfere with the prosecution of said work and move for a dissolution of such injunction and restraining order and for any other proper order in such suit.

SECTION 15. Each of the railway and railroad companies mentioned in this ordinance which are hereby required to elevate their roadbeds and tracks shall fully and finally complete said work of elevation on or before the thirty-first day of December, A. D. 1909, unless prevented by strikes or riots or restrained by injunction or other order or process of a court of competent jurisdiction. The time during which said companies shall be prevented by strike or strikes, riot or riots, or legal proceedings as aforesaid, shall be added to the time hereby limited for the completion of said work, provided said railway and railroad company, or companies, give notice to the Corporation Counsel of the City of Chicago of the institution of said legal proceedings. The City of Chicago shall thereupon have the right to intervene in any suit or proceedings brought by any person or persons seeking to enjoin or restrain or in any manner interfere with the prosecution of said work and move for a dissolution of such injunction and restraining order and for any other proper order in such suit.

And it is further distinctly understood and agreed that if said railway and railroad companies, or either of them, shall be delayed in the prosecution of the said work required to be done under the provisions of this ordinance, by reason of the obstruction of pipes, conduits, wires or other property of private corporations or individuals, as mentioned in Section 5 of this ordinance, or by reason of any delay on the part of the City of Chicago or any of its officers in performing the duties imposed upon the city and its officers by this ordinance in respect to the work herein required to be done by said railway and railroad companies respectively, then and in that case the time which said railway and railroad companies, or either of them, shall be so delayed shall be added to the time during which said companies are required by the terms of this ordinance to complete said work.

SECTION 16. Each of said companies which are required by this ordinance to elevate its tracks, including the Metropolitan West Side Elevated Railway Company, shall do its portion of the work in accordance with the terms hereof in apt and proper time, so as not to interfere with the proper and orderly prosecution of such work as a whole. Should any of said companies fail or neglect so to prosecute its or their work, the Commissioner of Public Works shall have and is hereby given the right, power and authority to give ten (10) days' notice in writing to such delinquent company, or companies, to prosecute such work. If any such company or companies shall fail or neglect to comply with said notice the Commissioner of Public Works may take charge of and cause such work to be done and the expense thereof shall thereupon be paid by such delinquent company, or companies. Any time during which either of said companies may be prevented by delay of the other of said companies shall be added to the total time allowed to the company so delayed for the completion of its own work.

SECTION 17. The consideration of the rights and privileges hereby granted to the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railway Company are upon the conditions that said railway company shall within three months after the passage of this ordinance procure and dedicate for the purpose of a public street the following described property, to-wit:

That part of Lots twenty (20) to twenty-six (26), both inclusive, of Block three (3), of Johnson's Subdivision of the north half (N. ½) of the west half (W. ½) of the southwest quarter (S. W. ¼), Section nineteen (19), Township thirty-nine (39) North, Range fourteen (14) east of the Third (3d) Principal Meridian, lying north of and adjoining a straight line drawn from a point in the east line of South Western avenue to a point of intersection with the south line of West Eighteenth street sixty-six (66) feet southeasterly of and at right angles and parallel to the southeasterly line of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railway Company's right-of-way.

Also that part of Lots ten (10) and eleven (11) in Sub-block two (2), in the Subdivision of Block one (1) of Walker's Douglas Park Addition in Section twenty-four (24), Township thirty-nine (39) North, Range thirteen (13) east of the Third (3d) Principal Meridian, lying south of and adjoining a straight line drawn from a point in the west line of South Western avenue to a point of intersection with the north line of West Eighteenth street sixty-six (66) feet northwesterly of and at right angles and parallel to the northwesterly line of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railway Company's right-of-way.

In case the said Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railway Company shall be unable to purchase said property, or any part thereof described in this section, at a price deemed by said railway company to be reasonable, then the same shall be condemned by the City of Chicago for street purposes and the compensation and damages awarded in such proceedings, including court costs, and all other expense of litigation that may be incurred in such condemnation proceedings shall be paid by said Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railway Company, and said Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railway Company shall have the right to take part in said condemnation proceedings in behalf of the city by counsel especially employed by it and shall have the right to have all witnesses that it may name called to testify in said condemnation proceedings.

SECTION 18. Nothing in this ordinance named or contained shall be so construed as to prevent said railway or railroad companies, or either of them, from locating and constructing the abutments which form the walls of the subways at a sufficient distance back from the building or lot line of the streets, boulevards or avenues for the purpose of constructing and maintaining in the spaces or recesses so left between said abutments and said building lines station buildings with all necessary ticket offices and waiting rooms, or other buildings fronting on said streets, boulevards or avenues uniform with the said building lines thereof, and entirely within the lines limiting and bounding the right-of-way of said railway or railroad companies, or either of them, and for the further purpose of constructing and maintaining within said lines, stairways and approaches leading to and from said station buildings to the elevated platform and tracks above the same for the accommodation and convenience of the passenger traffic of said railway and railroad companies, or for any other purpose in connection with the efficient maintenance and operation of the lines. And any and all portions of any streets, alleys or avenues extending into or across or along any of said lines of railway within the limits hereinbefore provided for any elevation of the roadbed and tracks of any of the railways mentioned in this ordinance, except the streets and avenues enumerated and specified in Section 4a under the head of schedule of subways, and in which subways are required to be constructed, shall be and the same are hereby discontinued and vacated underneath the elevated roadbeds and tracks in this ordinance described and within the limits of the right-of-way of any of said railway companies; and the City of Chicago shall at any time take any proceedings essential to perfect and effectuate such vacations.

SECTION 19. This ordinance shall take effect from and after its passage, approval and publication; provided, however, that it shall be null and void except as to such of the said several railway companies which are in this ordinance permitted and required to elevate their railway tracks, who shall through their duly authorized officers file with the City Clerk of the City of Chicago within ninety (90) days from the passage and approval by the Mayor of this ordinance, their agreement or agreements duly executed, whereby they shall undertake to do and perform all the matters and things required of them respectively by this ordinance. After the filing of such agreement or agreements, by the said several railway and railroad companies, or any of them, this ordinance shall not be materially modified or amended as to the said companies which shall have filed their said agreement or agreements, unless such company or companies shall be in default in the performance of the several matters and things required by this ordinance and undertaken to be done by such agreement.

The failure or default of any of said companies to file such agreement or agreements within the time herein limited shall not avoid or impair any of the rights hereunder of the several railway and railroad companies which shall have filed their agreement or agreements as hereinabove provided, so long as they shall perform the matters and things expressly required of them by this ordinance. Nothing in this ordinance contained shall be a waiver or surrender of the police power of the city or be taken in any way to deprive the city of the right to properly exercise such power.

FRANK I. BENNETT,
Chairman.

DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE,
October 29, 1906.

Hon. F. I. Bennett, Chairman, Finance Committee:

DEAR SIR—I desire to make following report as to sale of Springer School site, bids for which have been submitted upon advertisement.

Upon investigation I find that the title of city to this property is defective in that the grantor to the Trustees Schools, 38-14 never had title to two of the lots comprising this property; there are also two or three tax deeds outstanding on these lots.

The property is on the northwest corner of Wabash avenue and 41st street, fronting 142.75 feet on Wabash avenue, and with a depth of 160.60 feet. The highest bid of $11,400.00 being that of M. Marks is at approximately $80.00 a foot for the Wabash avenue frontage and is but a little short of the value of the property.

When I discovered the defects in the title, I inquired of both bidders whether they would take a quit claim deed from the city of its title in present condition, and pay amount of highest bid, namely $11,400. Both have refused to do this.

As some time will be necessary before the title can be cleared up, I will therefore recommend that all bids be rejected and that the appropriate officers of the Board of Education be directed to clear up the title to this property.

Bids and papers herewith returned.

Very respectfully,
CLARENCE E. FISH,
City Real Estate Agent.

Approved:

L. E. MCGANN, Comptroller.

DEAR SIR—The following resolution was passed by the Chicago Grocers' and Butchers' Association at the regular meeting held on November 22d, 1906, and we would request that you give this matter your consideration:

The following veto message:

MAYOR'S OFFICE,
November 24, 1906.

To the Honorable, the City Council:

GENTLEMEN—I return herewith, without my approval, an order passed at the last regular meeting of your Honorable Body, and published at page 2028 of the current printed Council Proceedings, directing the Commissioner of Public Works to lay a 4-inch water service pipe into the Ravenswood Presbyterian Church, at the northwest corner of Hermitage and Cullom avenues, without meter, for the reason that the water pipe described in this order is larger in dimensions than is usually inserted in such orders, and it does not appear for what purpose the water is to be used, nor is there any limitation upon the length of time for which the privilege may be enjoyed, and there is, also, no clause providing that the privileges granted may be revoked by the Mayor at any time in his discretion. In my opinion, all grants of this character, where water is furnished for charitable or religious purposes, should state specifically the purpose for which the water is to be used and providing a penalty if used for any other purpose.

Respectfully submitted,

E. F. DUNNE,

Mayor.

Ald. Foreman moved to reconsider the vote by which the order referred to in the veto message of His Honor, the Mayor, was passed.

The motion prevailed.

November 24, 1906.

To the Honorable, the City Council.

Respectfully submitted,

E. F. DUNNE,

Mayor.

Ald. Bennett moved to reconsider the vote by which the ordinance referred to in the veto message of His Honor, the Mayor, was passed.

MAYOR'S OFFICE,
November 24, 1906.

To the Honorable, the City Council.

I respectfully recommend that the vote by which said ordinance was passed be reconsidered and that the same be re-passed without the usual reference to a committee, with the following amendment:

Amend Section 4 of said ordinance by adding at the end thereof the following language:

WHEREAS, In open violation of law, ordinances and public policy the people in certain districts within the city limits of the City of Chicago are subjected to extortion by the Chicago Telephone Company by means of an extra charge or toll for telephone service within the city limits;

WHEREAS, The extra toll charge in those certain portions of Chicago is not for any special additional benefit, advantage or improvement in the service furnished to those sections, but is an arbitrary charge which the company persists in enforcing in spite of protests of citizens and contrary to law and is the perpetration of a grievous wrong by that company upon those portions of the City of Chicago;

WHEREAS, The Chicago Telephone Company shows a disposition not to treat the whole people of Chicago on a basis of equality but discriminates against a portion of the residents of the Eighth Ward, known as South Chicago, and of other wards in different parts of the city without any legal justification;

WHEREAS, The past experience of the people of this city in seeking their legal and just rights from the telephone company has been that the company would not acknowledge those rights until compelled to do so by order of court as in the case of paying just compensation to the city on gross receipts on annexed territory, and in the case of charging more than the $125 rate provided under the ordinance;

WHEREAS, The extortion of a toll charge from telephone subscribers within the city limits on telephone connection with the residents of different sections within the city limits is just as dishonest and unfair as an overcharge by means of short weight which the city's officials are so vigorously prosecuting;

WHEREAS, Information as to recent discrimination in favor of large users of telephones in this city shows that the foregoing mentioned extortion is being practiced chiefly against the weak;

WHEREAS, The securing for the people of their present rights and the stopping of further extortion on the part of the company is a subject separate and distinct from the consideration of the granting of any new rights and in no way affects the proceedings before the Council Committee on Gas, Oil and Electric Light, but is a matter for the action of this Council and of the City Law Department at this time without any delay; therefore be it

Ordered and Resolved, By the City Council of the City of Chicago that the City Law Department determine at once—

What ordinance against extortion the Chicago Telephone Company is guilty of violating and disregarding by charging people in certain sections of Chicago, within the city limits, an extra ten cent toll for telephone calls, over and above the usual and legal charge, and what is the penalty for such extortion;

Also, what power has the City Law Department to protect citizens from such rate discrimination and extortion, and how can it most speedily and effectively stop such extortions and discriminations;

And be it further Ordered and Resolved, That the City Law Department at once take proper legal steps to secure to the whole people of Chicago, equality in the use of the common carrier known as the telephone, and respect, and obedience to the law, and justice by the said Chicago Telephone Company.

Ald. Bennett moved to defer consideration thereon and publish the opinion of the Assistant Corporation Counsel.

The motion prevailed.

The following is the opinion:

OFFICE OF THE CORPORATION COUNSEL,
November 24, 1906.

To the Honorable, the City Council.

GENTLEMEN—At the last regular meeting of your Honorable Body (November 19, 1906) the following motion (which is published at page 2023 of the current printed Council Proceedings) was made and prevailed:

"That the Corporation Counsel be requested to furnish the Council at its next regular meeting his opinion as to the validity of the foregoing ordinance."

At the direction of the Corporation Counsel I shall proceed to a consideration of the matter submitted.

The ordinance in question (which appears on the previous page of the Council Proceedings) recites that there is unnecessary congestion and delay of street cars during the morning and evening hours, caused by vehicles on the street car tracks, which is injurious to many people traveling between their homes and places of business, and that the present ordinances, giving the right of way to street cars as against other vehicles have proved inadequate to prevent blockades and congestion.

Section 1 of the ordinance reads as follows:

"It shall be unlawful for any person to drive or cause to be driven any vehicle in or along upon any street railway track or right of way within the city between the hours of 6:30 and 9 o'clock in the morning and 4:30 and 7:00 o'clock in the evening."

Section 2 provides a penalty for the violation of the ordinance.

The order requesting an opinion from the Law Department may be said to present two principal questions:

First—The power of the City Council of the City of Chicago to pass the present ordinance, or an ordinance of like character which shall give to street railway companies the exclusive use of their tracks at the particular times specified in this ordinance, or at any time. This is simply a question of the power of the City Council to so legislate.

The second question which naturally arises is, whether legislation of this character, and particularly the proposed ordinance, is reasonable.

So far as I am aware, no similar ordinance has ever been passed by any municipality in this State or in any other State. The matter is one of great importance, and before discussing the two questions mentioned above it may be well to revert to certain well settled principles which underlie the subject of the control of its streets by a municipality.

In People v. Harris, 203 Ill. 272 (279), our Supreme Court said:

"The city could have no authority to accept public streets upon any other condition than that they should be for public use, and what is meant by public use is that the public shall have the uninterrupted, unimpeded and unobstructed use of every portion and part of such public highway."

See also Smith v. McDowell, 148 Ill. 51.

In Pennsylvania Company v. City of Chicago, 181 Ill. 289 (296), the court also said:

"The city has no power or authority to grant the exclusive use of its streets to any private person or for any private purposes, but must hold and control the possession exclusively for public use for the purposes of travel and the like. * * * The rule is, that all public highways, from side to side and from end to end, are held for the use of the public, and no other safe rule can be adopted."

The following language is used in Elliott on Roads and Streets (page 478):

"It is well settled that the public are entitled not only to a free passage along the highway, but to a free passage along any portion of it not in the actual use of some other traveller. * * The streets of the city are dedicated for public use, and for these purposes the City Council may improve and control them and adopt needful rules for their management and use * * * * "

And, again, in People v. Harris, supra, it was said, with reference to the powers of the City Council:

"If they may deprive the citizens of a portion of the streets, then what portion? * * * There is no safe field of speculation other than to keep within the limits placed by the books, by saying that the streets in their entirety are public properties exclusively for public use, and that they, or any part of them, cannot be devoted exclusively to private purposes or private use."

It is to be observed that all of the foregoing language was used in reference to the use, or exclusive use, of streets for private purposes and not for public purposes. The decisions in the cases cited above do not bear upon the precise question here presented.

With this introduction I shall now take up in their order the questions hereinabove referred to, the first of which relates to the city's power simply.

By Section 1 of Article V. of the Cities and VillagesAct the City Council of the City of Chicago is given the following powers:

"Ninth. To regulate the use of the same streets, alleys, etc).

* * *

"Twentieth. To regulate traffic and sales upon the streets, sidewalks and public places.

* * *

"Sixty-sixth. To regulate the police of the city or village and pass and enforce all necessary police ordinances."

Mr. Justice Magruder, in Snell et al. v. City of Chicago et al., 133 Ill. 413 (440), said:

"The policy of this State has always "been to give control of the streets, both as to repairs and general management, to the corporate authorities of the city through which such streets run."

Our Supreme Court has uniformly held that the power given to the city over its streets and alleys by the Cities and Villages Act is exclusive.

Shields v. Ross, 158 Ill. 214;
C. & V. R. R. Co. v. People, 92 Ill. 170;
Barrows v. City of Sycamore, 49 Ill. App. 590.

In the case of Summerfield v. City of Chicago, 197 Ill. 270, it appears that a street, or a part of a street, had been appropriated for a structure to support elevated tracks. The court there said:

"The general rule is that where legislative or discretionary powers are conferred upon municipal corporations the courts will not interfere, unless in the exercise of such discretion, there is fraud, manifest oppression or gross abuse."

The General Assembly represents the people of this State at large, and it may grant the supervision and control of streets or other highways to municipal corporations so long as they are not diverted to a use which differs substantially from that for which they were originally intended. (Cicero Lumber Co. v. Town of Cicero, 176 Ill. 9).

The authorities just cited show then that under those clauses of the Cities and Villages Act which I have quoted the city is vested with complete control of its streets, and has a large discretion in the administration of the trust vested in it by the State.

What, then, in the absence of any legislation, are the powers of a street railroad company over tracks laid in a public street?

In Nellis on Street Surface Railroads, the author says, in speaking of a street railroad company (page 258):

"Under its common law duty to maintain its tracks in a public street so as not to be an obstruction to travel thereon when a new pavement is ordered, a street surface railroad company must relay its tracks and adjust its roadbed to the new pavement and grade."

And the same author says (page 317), in speaking of street railway cars:

"The cars have the right to expeditiously transport passengers on the surface of the streets, but that gives them no exclusive right to the surface occupied by their tracks. Neither at crossings nor between them is the public right relinquished."

And, again, on page 319, it is stated:

"Trolley cars and the drivers of ordinary carriages have equal rights upon the public streets and street crossings."

The extracts from the text books named are sustained by the authorities cited in support thereof by the author and announce, I believe, correct principles of law; and, therefore, without such an ordinance as the one proposed it is perfectly clear that no street railway company would have the right at any time during the day to the exclusive use of its tracks. Has the city, as a means of regulation, the power to grant this right? In my opinion it can, provided it adopts an ordinance that is reasonable. (Savage v. Salem, 23 Ore. 381; 24 L. R. A. 787).

To give to a street railroad company the exclusive right to travel over that portion of a street in which its tracks are laid is not the granting of an exclusive right for private purposes, but is a cession to a corporation operating a particular kind of conveyance for public purposes of the exclusive use of a certain part of a public street. Similar exclusive rights have been granted for public purposes. The structures supporting elevated street railroads, telegraph, telephone and trolley wire poles, lamp-posts of gas companies and hydrants of water companies all occupy exclusively parts of the public streets, but the appropriation of this space finds sanction in law because made for public purposes. (Savage v. Salem, supra.)

Street railway companies are engaged in the business of transporting passengers. This is a business impressed with a public use. Our Supreme Court has always recognized that when the streets are used for the transportation of the public in cars they were being devoted to a public use to the same extent as if they were used for the transportation of passengers in omnibuses or other vehicles, or used by the ordinary foot passenger. A street car can run only on tracks; it can turn neither to the right nor to the left; it can use only that part of the street upon which tracks are laid. In the case of other vehicles, as we know, there is no such physical restriction.

I therefore think, as I have said, that the City Council, under its discretionary powers, may say that during certain hours of the day vehicles engaged in the transportation of merchandise or passengers, which are not restricted, because of their construction, to any particular part of the street, shall keep off the tracks of street railways.

Having concluded, then, that, as an abstract question of power, the city may pass this ordinance, or an ordinance of like character, I will consider the question as to whether this ordinance or a similar ordinance would commend itself to our courts as reasonable.

Second—Is this ordinance reasonable or would a similar ordinance be reasonable?

It will be observed that the ordinance as drafted is not restricted to particular districts of the city, but applies to every part of it. While it is true that street railways are only given the exclusive use of their tracks during certain hours of the day, there are no provisions restricting the operation of the ordinance to streets of more than a certain width, nor is the ordinance restricted to certain seasons. The ordinance relates to all street railroad tracks laid in narrow streets as well as wide ones; to unpaved streets as well as those that are paved; and it is notorious that in many parts of Chicago there are unpaved streets or streets where the only pavement is found between the outer rails of the tracks of street railways. It is equally notorious that during the winter and early spring many of the streets are obstructed on both sides of the street railway tracks with banks of snow and slush, rendering the streets impassable, except as to that part in which street railway tracks are laid. Street railway tracks frequently furnish the only means of travel where the remainder of the street on both sides of the tracks is being paved. To give to street railway companies the exclusive use of their tracks during certain hours of the day, and those the hours when traffic is heaviest, is calculated to encourage the street car companies to run their cars at a high rate of speed not only in the outlying districts but also in the districts where travel is congested. This must result in increased danger at the points where street railway tracks intersect other street railway tracks, and is likely to result in collisions not only between the street cars but between street cars and other vehicles crossing the tracks at street intersections. It is possible that the very reason which is urged as a valid reason for the passage of this ordinance might be sufficient cause for declaring it invalid.

The ordinance recites that the operation of street cars is interfered with in congested districts by vehicles obstructing the tracks. During the hours mentioned in this ordinance it may be that in many of the streets in the down-town district, where traffic is congested and where there are many street car tracks, the use of these tracks by vehicles as well as cars is a necessity.

I might continue and point out other objections to the reasonableness of this ordinance, but I think I have said sufficient to show that it is unreasonable upon the principle of the case of City of Chicago v. Gunning System, 214 Ill. 628 (640). In my opinion the ordinance is too broad in its scope and cannot be sustained.

Very truly yours,

MACLAY HOYNE,

Assistant Corporation Counsel.

December 3, 1906.

To the Honorable, the City Council:

GENTLEMEN—I return herewith without my approval an ordinance passed at the last regular meeting of your Honorable Body, and published at page 2091 of the current printed Council Proceedings, amending an ordinance authorizing the Bauman Jewelry Company to erect a clock at the southwest corner of State and Madison streets, by substituting for the name Bauman Jewelry Company the name Bauman Loan Company, for the reason that there is no provision in the amendatory ordinance requiring a new bond to be given by the Bauman Loan Company.

I respectfully recommend that the vote by which the said amendatory ordinance was passed be reconsidered, and that the same be repassed without the usual reference to a committee with the following amendment:

MAYOR'S OFFICE,
December 3, 1906.

To the Honorable, the City Council:

GENTLEMEN—I return herewith without my approval an ordinance passed at the last regular meeting of your Honorable Body, and published at pages 2129 to 2131, inclusive, of the current printed Council Proceedings, authorizing Montgomery Ward & Company to construct and maintain certain switch tracks in Hawthorne avenue, for the reason that it is provided by Section 5 of said ordinance that there shall be deducted from the payments of compensation required fifty cents per annum for each foot of switch track removed during the term of the ordinance, while it nowhere appears, either in said ordinance or in the plat attached thereto, what is the total length of said switch tracks or any of them.

As a further reason for withholding my approval of the said ordinance I would say that in my judgment ordinances of this character should be uniform, and the ordinance as passed requires the payment of compensation semi-annually instead of annually as has heretofore been the custom.

I respectfully recommend that the vote by which the said ordinance was passed be reconsidered and that the same be repassed without the usual reference to a committee in the form in which the said ordinance was published on page 2043 of the current printed Council Proceedings prior to amendment.

Respectfully submitted,

ALSO,

The following communication, which was ordered published and referred to the Committee on Finance:

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS,
CHICAGO, December 3, 1906.

To the Honorable, the Mayor and the City Council:

GENTLEMEN—In compliance with the order of your Honorable Body I beg to report on the amount of water used by the various park systems within the City of Chicago, as follows:

Jackson and Washington Parks and the various small parks which are located between 51st and 67th streets and Wentworth and Western avenue, 5,957,288 gallons daily. This at meter rates amounts to about $90,000.00 yearly.

West and North Side parks 532,500 gallons daily. At meter rates this amounts to about $11,000 yearly.

If the city were to receive pay for this amount of water it would increase its revenues by $100,000.

Inasmuch as the park systems receive their pro rata shares of the general taxation for the purpose of maintaining the parks and as the pumping of this amount of water costs the city a considerable sum I do not think it equitable to the city that these parks should be exempted from the payment of water rates. I further believe that if the park system were required to pay for the amount of water used they would more carefully guard the use of same and not permit its waste, as the cost would appear in their annual reports as important items of expense and they would naturally economize as much as possible.

This question becomes an extremely import one in the summer time when it is so hard for the city to supply the residents in the vicinity of these parks with sufficient water on account of the needless waste of the same by these park systems.

Very respectfully,

WM. L. O'CONNELL,

Commissioner of Public Works.

CORPORATION COUNSEL.

The Corporation Counsel submitted the following communication and ordinance, which were ordered published and referred to the Committee on License:

OFFICE OF THE CORPORATION COUNSEL,
December 3, 1906.

To the Honorable, the City Council of the City of Chicago:

GENTLEMEN—Complying with an order passed by your Honorable Body on November 26, 1906, and appearing on page 2096 of Council Proceedings of that date, I have prepared an ordinance providing for the licensing of all vehicles drawn by one or more horses, used in the public streets of Chicago, and transmit said ordinance herewith.

Yours respectfully,

LEON HORNSTEIN,
Assistant Corporation Counsel.

AN ORDINANCE

Providing for the licensing of all vehicles drawn by horses used in the public streets.

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Chicago:

SECTION 1. It shall be unlawful for any person or corporation to use or cause to be used in the public streets of the city any vehicle drawn by one or more horses, without obtaining a license therefor as provided for in Section 2 hereof; provided that this ordinance shall not apply to vehicles which are licensed as public vehicles under the general ordinances of the City of Chicago.

SECTION 2. The owner or owners of any such vehicle drawn by one or more horses, which is to be used in the public streets of the city, shall make application to the Board of Inspectors of Public Vehicles, in writing, on a blank to be furnished for that purpose, for a license for same, setting forth in such application the name of such owner or owners and a description of the vehicle for which it is desired to secure a license. If the said vehicle is found to conform to the ordinances of the City of Chicago, such application, with the approval thereon of the said board, shall be transmitted to the Mayor, who shall thereupon issue or cause to be issued a license for such vehicle upon the payment by such applicant of the fee hereinafter provided for. Such license fee shall be paid to the City Collector, and upon the payment thereof the license shall issue authorizing the use of such vehicle on the public streets of the city until the expiration of such license. All licenses issued hereunder shall be numbered consecutively; provided that upon the renewal thereof, the same number may be retained by the licensee of such vehicle.

SECTION 3. The license fee for all vehicles drawn by one horse shall be one dollar ($1.00) per annum, and the license fee for all vehicles drawn by two or more horses shall be three dollars ($3.00) per annum. Every license issued hereunder shall expire on the last day of April next following its issuance, and no license shall be granted except upon payment of the full annual license fee.

SECTION 4. The word "horse" as used in this ordinance shall be held to include any animal used for the purpose of drawing vehicles.

SECTION 5. Every vehicle licensed under the provisions of this ordinance shall have the number of its license plainly painted or otherwise placed on same in figures at least one and one-half inches in length in a conspicuous place on the outside of each side of such vehicle, and such number shall be kept so painted or otherwise placed thereon plainly and distinctly at all times while such vehicle is in use during the continuance of such license. Upon the expiration of such license, unless same is forthwith renewed, such number shall at once be erased or removed from such vehicle and such vehicle shall not thereafter be used with such number thereon.

SECTION 6. Every person or corporation using or operating, or in charge, possession or control of any vehicle drawn by one or more horses, used on the public streets of the city, which has not been licensed in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance, or failing or refusing to comply with the provisions of this ordinance, shall be fined not less than five dollars ($5.00) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100.00) for each offense; and each and every day on which any such person or corporation shall so use or operate any such vehicle, without having obtained a license therefor after the first offense, shall constitute a separate and distinct offense.

SECTION 7. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and due publication.

ALSO,

The following opinions, which were ordered published and placed on file:

LAW DEPARTMENT,
December 3, 1906.

To the Honorable, the City Council of the City of Chicago:

GENTLEMEN—At the last regular meeting of your Honorable Body you passed an order which is published at page 2093 of the current printed Council Proceedings, reciting that the South Side Elevated Railroad Company has been frequently requested by aldermen and citizens to light the streets at street intersections beneath its structure by electricity, and that such requests have been ignored.

This order directs the Corporation Counsel to furnish an opinion as to the right of the City, under its police powers, to compel the South Side Elevated Railroad Company to light the street intersections beneath its structure, and to suggest to the Council the proper method of enforcing such right if it exists, etc.

Section 1997 of the Revised Municipal Code of Chicago of 1905 reads as follows:

"Any person or corporation owning or operating any steam, elevated or street railway, whose track or tracks cross or intersect at above or below grade any of the streets within the city shall and they are hereby required to provide, at their own expense, proper and sufficient lights and care for same at all such crossings or intersections. Such light shall be of such kind as may be approved by the Commissioner of Public Works."

Section 1998 of the Code provides that any person or corporation violating the foregoing section shall be fined not less than $10.00 nor more than $100.00 for each offense, and that each day during which any crossing or intersection is permitted to remain without light after the first conviction shall constitute a separate and distinct offense.

This legislation, it seems to me, is of the same general character as statutes or ordinances requiring the construction of approaches, embankments, cattle guards, bridges or gates, and is authorized under the police power of the city. Such legislation, it seems to me, is particularly reasonable in the case of an elevated railroad because where an elevated railroad structure crosses a street it has the effect of making the street below it much darker than the remainder of the street. The elevated railroad companies then, themselves, are, at least, in part the cause of the darkness of streets below their structures.

In the City of Chicago v. Chicago Union Traction Company, 199 Ill. 259, the court passed upon an ordinance of this city which repuired a street railroad company to clean between its rails all streets occupied by the company, and which imposed a penalty for violation of the ordinance, and it appears that owing to the presence of the tracks, the street, instead of sloping from the center, had a flat crown 16 feet in width, and that the rails retained dirt in the center of the streets, and that owing to such conditions it was more difficult and expensive to clean the streets. The ordinance was upheld and it was denied that it cast a public burden upon the street railroad company.

It is well known that the darkened places between elevated railroad structures have been frequently used by thugs as hiding places while laying in wait for citizens passing along the street.

It may be that Section 1997 is not sufficiently specific to render its provisions enforcible in mandamus proceedings, but I believe that the section is valid, and that the penalty imposed in the succeeding section may be enforced. I would suggest that prosecutions for violations of the ordinance furnish the most efficacious means for compelling the companies to install lights at street intersections. I do not believe that because the Commissioner of Public Works is entrusted with the power to select the kind of light to be used the ordinance is invalid.

Spiegler, et al. v. City of Chicago, 216 Ill. 114.

Very truly yours,

MACLAY HOYNE,

Assistant Corporation Counsel.

OFFICE OF THE CORPORATION COUNSEL,
December 1, 1906.

To the Honorable, the City Council:

GENTLEMEN—At the last regular meeting of your Honorable Body an order was passed directing the city law department to determine immediately:

First. "What ordinance against extortion the Chicago Telephone Company is guilty of violating and disregarding by charging people in certain sections of Chicago, within the city limits, an extra five-cent toll for telephone calls, over and above the usual and legal charge, and what is the penalty for such extortion?"

Second. "Also, what power has the city law department to protect citizens from such rate discrimination and extortion and how can it most speedily and effectively stop such extortions and discriminations?"

Third. The order further provides that the city law department shall "at once take proper legal steps to secure to the whole pepole of Chicago equality in the use of the common carrier known as the telephone and respect and obedience to the law and justice by the said Chicago Telephone Company."

The above matter having been assigned to me by the Corporation Counsel, I now address myself to the three propositions involved in the order of your Honorable Body.

First. There is no ordinance in the City of Chicago imposing any penalty upon the Chicago Telephone Company either for exceeding the rates prescribed by city ordinances or for charging extortionate or unusual rates. November 27, 1903, I furnished to your Judiciary Committee an opinion, which was approved by former Corporation Counsel Tolman (Opinions of Corporation Counsel, 1905, page 625), pointing out that the City Council might enact an ordinance prohibiting telephone companies from charging in excess of the rates fixed by city ordinance and providing penalties for violations of such ordinance. I quote the following extract from that opinion:

> "Under such an ordinance the continued collections of tolls could be checked, if, . . . the levying of tolls is in contravention of the ordinance of 1889. And an ordinance framed along these lines would not violate the contract with the company (the ordinance of 1889)."

The company referred to in the foregoing quotation is the Chicago Telephone Company, and the ordinance of 1889 mentioned is the ordinance granting to the Chicago Telephone Company its rights in Chicago. This ordinance of January 4, 1889, under which the Chicago Telephone Company is now operating in the city, prohibits the telephone company from exceeding the charges for furnishing service then established and requires the company to file a schedule showing what those rates were at the time of the passage of the ordinance. In the schedule filed by the Chicago Telephone Company with the City Clerk, in compliance with the ordinance of 1889, it is shown that the company was charging at that time, within the central part of the city, $125.00 for business telephones, $100.00 for residence telephones and $150.00 for public telephones, all of these charges being for unlimited service within the said district, which was bounded by blue lines upon a map of the City of Chicago attached to the schedule of rates. The schedule also states that for telephones located outside of this "blue line district" the company charged, annually, in addition to the foregoing rates, $25.00 for each mile or fraction of a mile.

The ordinance of January 4, 1889, contains nothing authorizing the imposition of a penalty by way of fine for charging rates in excess of those fixed by ordinance.

The answer, then, to the first question is, that the Chicago Telephone Company, by charging "tolls" for telephonic communication between different parts of the city is violating no ordinance against extortion, but that if tolls are illegal they must be illegal by reason of something contained in the ordinance of January 4, 1889; and this brings us to the second point.

Second. I have before referred to the opinion furnished to your Judiciary Committee November 27, 1903, which considers at length the illegality of tolls and the method of securing their speedy abolition, and to that opinion I refer for a more complete answer to your resolution than I can set forth in the present space. I might briefly summarize the conclusions therein reached as follows:

(a) It is clear that a subscriber who is paying the maximum rates the Chicago Telephone Company is authorized to exact cannot be made to pay, in addition, tolls for communicating with any other subscriber of the company who is located within the city limits, whether the extra charge is imposed under the guise of a toll or any other form. The position taken in 1903 has been fully sustained by our Supreme Court in the case of People ex rel. v. Chicago Telephone Company, 220 Ill. 238.

(b) While conceding it is somewhat doubtful, it was also insisted that the telephone company could not impose their so-called toll charges upon any subscriber within the city limits for communicating with another subscriber who was also located within the city limits, whether said subscribers were or were not paying the maximum rates which the company might collect under the ordinance, for the reason that the ordinance of January 4, 1889, contemplated a single comprehensive telephone system, while toll charges are imposed upon the theory that the company was operating a number of distinct systems. I also quote the following from the opinion of November 27, 1903, which points out how a telephone company may be prevented from charging tolls by the interposition of the city:

> "The city may file a bill to enjoin the telephone company from violating the conditions of the ordinance of 1889 as to prices for telephone service on behalf of the inhabitants of the city, upon the ground that it is trustee for the public under the ordinance, and as a matter of public expediency, because such a bill would obviate a multiplicity of suits by individual patrons of the telephone company."

In the quo warranto proceedings brought by the State's Attorney against the Chicago Telephone Company, at the instance of the City of Chicago, a forfeiture of the Company's charter and of its city ordinance was sought, not only upon the ground that it had exceeded the annual charges prescribed by the city ordinance but also upon the ground that it had insisted in charging tolls, which charges were illegal.

In the Supreme Court more than one-half of the briefs filed on the part of both parties were taken up with the discussion of the "toll" question, but the Supreme Court in its opinion in the 220th Ill. makes no reference whatever to this point.

After the reversal by the Supreme Court of the judgment of Judge Mack in these quo warranto proceedings the case was redocketed in the Circuit Court and leave obtained by counsel for the Chicago Telephone Company to file amended and additional pleas. Pursuant to this leave, such pleas, covering one hundred and six printed pages, have been filed, and as the result of a number of conferences between the Mayor, members of the law department and the officials of the Chicago Telephone Company, the company, following the decision of the Supreme Court, paid into the city treasury $280,000.00 on account of back compensation due the city, and has agreed to pay to its subscribers, in cash, $400,000.00 for excessive rates collected by the company and has cancelled bonds representing many hundreds of thousands of dollars given to secure the payment of such excessive rates. The company also agreed that hereafter it would make no charge in excess of $125.00 for its improved service, and would not enforce the collection of toll charges from any subscriber who was paying the maximum rate fixed by the city ordinance.

The labor imposed upon the law department by this litigation in the past was very great, and it has been felt, in view of the present negotiations before your Committee on Gas, Oil and Electric Light for a new telephone license that if there was any reasonable chance for a final settlement of the telephone question, this department might well delay the prosecution of the pending litigation until ordered to continue it by your Honorable Body, or notify that, so far as the Chicago Telephone Company was concerned, all negotiations were at an end.

The question, then, is whether by the order passed at your last meeting it was the desire of your Honorable Body that the present case be prosecuted at once, and such prosecution be confined to the lines of the opinion of the Supreme Court, or whether it was the desire of the City Council that the law department, in addition to immediately prosecuting the pending case, should file a bill for an injunction against the Chicago Telephone Company to restrain it from charging tolls within the city limits to any of its subscribers.

Third. The third point involved in your order has already been more or less considered under the foregoing head, but I might supplement what has been said by saying that if the Chicago Telephone Company has kept its agreement with the city, it is at the present time charging no tolls to any subscriber who is paying, by way of an annual charge, the maximum rate fixed by the ordinance. It should be understood that if the city is successful in preventing the Chicago Telephone Company from imposing any charges in the form of "tolls" to those subscribers who are paying small annual rentals for party line or neighborhood exchange telephones, there is nothing in the present ordinance to prevent the company from raising its annual rentals to those subscribers, so long, of course, as it does not exceed the maximum rates fixed therein..

The law department is ready to proceed with the pending litigation or with any future litigation upon your further command.

Yours very truly,

MACLAY HOYNE,

Assistant Corporation Counsel.

WATER DEPARTMENT.

The Committee on Water Department submitted the following report, which was, on motion of Ald. Reese, deferred and ordered published:

CHICAGO, November 8th, 1906.

To the Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Chicago in Council Assembled:

Your Committee on Water Department, to whom was referred an ordinance establishing a flat rate of 7 cents per 1,000 gallons for water supplied through meters, having had the same under advisement, beg leave to report and recommend the passage of the ordinance and the publication of accompanying communication from H. O. Nourse, Superintendent of Water.

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS,
CHICAGO, October 17, 1906.

Hon. Otto Reese, Chairman, and Gentlemen of Committee on Water Department:

DEAR SIRS—Complying with your verbal instructions of Wednesday the 10th inst. as to the effect that would be produced upon the revenues of the Bureau of Water for the year 1907 should the proposed amendment to the Water Ordinances now before your Committee become a law, viz., making a flat rate of seven cents for metered water and a reduction of $1.00 for each and every frontage rate assessment account, permit me to say:

Inasmuch as the proposed changes would effect only the meter rates and frontage rates I will, in making my statement, deal only with these two sources of revenue and my statement will be based, first, upon the actual revenues from these two sources for the year 1905 and the estimated statement based upon the actual collections for the nine months ending September 30, 1906, and the estimated collections for the remaining three months of the year 1906.

Collections for 1905 from assessed rates were	$2,383,475.23
Collections for 1905 from meter rates were	1,648,626.23
Total collections from the two sources were	$4,032,101.46

During the year 1905 the water passing through meters amounted to 24,088,827,500 gallons.

This amount of water at seven cents per 1,000 gallons would produce a revenue of	$1,686,217.92
The actual collections from meters amounted to	1,648,626.23
The increased revenue at a seven cent rate would be shown to be	$ 37,591.69

At the close of the year 1905 there was shown upon the ward ledgers of this bureau to have been in actual service, represented by the frontage accounts, in round numbers, 222,500. The revenue from frontage rates for this year amount to $2,383,475.23. A dollar from each frontage account would amount to $222,500.00, depleting the frontage rates account for 1905 for this amount, leaving $2,160,975.23.

If no change would occur for the year 1906 over 1905 the result would be shown to be as follows: Total revenue from the two sources for 1905, $4,032,101.46, decrease from frontage rate, $222,500; increased meter rates, $37,591.69; total decrease, $184,908.31; taken from $4,032,101.46, leaves $3,847,193.15; but the collections for the nine months ending September 30th, 1906, show for the corresponding period for the previous year the following:

First nine months of 1906, meters	$1,361,762.05
First nine months of 1906, frontage	1,764,803.92
Making a total of		$3,126,565.97
First nine months of 1905, meters	$1,186,435.98
First nine months of 1905, frontage	1,710,078.29
Making a total of		2,896,514.27
Increase for the nine months		$ 230,051.70

Taking the actual collections for the nine months and the estimated collections for the next succeeding three months the result will appear about as follows:

Meters for nine months	$1,361,762.05
Estimate for next three months	580,000.00
Making a total of		$1,941,762.05
Frontage for nine months	$1,764,803.92
Estimate for next three months	690,000.00
Making a total of		2,454,803.92
Making a grand total from the two sources of			$4,396,515.97
Collections for the year 1905 were			4,032,101.46
Making the increase for 1906			$ 364,414.51

During the year 1905 the water passing through meters amounted to 24,088,827,500 gallons, as above stated. The annual increase of metered water amounts to, in round numbers, 2,500,000,000 gallons.

It is safe, therefore, to say the metered water for the year 1906 will amount to about 26,590,000,000 gallons. On the basis of the meters at present installed the additional installation of meters it is estimated will increase this about 1,000,000,000 gallons, making a total of 27,590,000,000 gallons. This amount of water computed at seven cents per 1,000 gallons would produce a revenue of $1,931,300.00, and it may be observed that this figure is within $10,000 of the actual collections for the nine months and the estimated collections for the three months of the year 1906.

In this connection I wish to remark that the average rate of metered water, for the year was, in round numbers, seven cents per 1,000 gallons. The effect of the proposed change for the year 1906 would result then as follows:

Collections for the year, frontage	$2,454,803.02
Less $1.00 reduction for each account	222,500.00
Amount for frontage on 1906 basis	$2,232,303.02
From meters	1,931,300.00
Making a total for the year of		$4,163,603.02

As previously stated, the collections for nine months and the estimates for three months show the figures at the end of the year will be $4,396,515.97

Deducting the above from this amount, viz..... 4,163,603.02

Leaves a total amount of..... $ 232,912.95 representing the effect of the proposed ordinance.

Figuring upon the above basis the collections for 1907, estimated, of course, will be:

Frontage	$2,232,303.02
Increase by city's growth.....	50,000.00
Total frontage		$2,282,303.02
Metered water	27,590,000,000 gal.
Annual increase	3,500,000,000 gal.
Total	31,090,000,000 gal.
At seven cents per 1,000 gallons amounts to.....		$2,176,300.00
Making a grand total of.....		$4,458,603.02

Respectfully submitted,

H. O. Nourse,
Superintendent of Water.

The said bridges shall be supported on abutments of concrete, stone or brick masonry, or on rows of iron or steel columns, braced together laterally and erected on and anchored to masonry foundations constructed within the line of the railroad right-of-way and in the center and curb lines of the intersecting avenues and streets, or as provided in the schedule of subways herein contained; provided, however, that in all cases where subways shall be built under the elevated tracks of the said railroad company, its successors, lessees or assigns, the walls of the abutments of the said subways shall in no event extend beyond the respective lot lines of the streets crossed.

If said railroad company shall fail, neglect or refuse to repair, keep and maintain the said work in accordance with this paragraph within thirty (30) days after notice so to do from the Commissioner of Public Works, the Commissioner of Public Works may proceed to do or cause to have done the work necessary to comply with the same and collect the cost and expense thereof from said railroad company mentioned in this ordinance.

SECTION 10. Permission and authority are hereby given to said company whenever the same shall be necessary in the prosecution of the work which is herein authorized or required to be performed, to obstruct temporarily any public street, avenue or alley to such extent and for such length of time as may be approved by the Commissioner of Public Works; and said company is hereby authorized whenever the same shall become necessary to erect and maintain temporary structures and false work in any of said streets and avenues during the construction of its said elevated railroad tracks subject to the like approval of the Commissioner of Public Works.
